

Lisa Post

Lisa joined CLD's Board of Directors in September 2016. She is an avid volunteer in the community and brings a passion for fundraising and leadership. Lisa lends her time to various organizations in the community including Family Transition Place, Community Safety Partners and The Community Resource Centre. Lisa involves herself in a variety of fundraising initiatives for 'Taking the Edge Off Cancer' supporting the oncology expansion at Headwaters Healthcare Centre, a cause near and dear to her heart. She is a cofounding member of the Celebrate Your Awesome initiative.

Lisa, a 20-year veteran in retail management, recently decided it was time to turn her true passion into her career and opened her own freelance writing business, Written Works. Her time in retail brings her experience in sales and customer service, financial management and leadership.

Two years ago she successfully ran a campaign for a position on the Town of Orangeville council

In her spare time, Lisa enjoys spending time at her family's cottage in Caledon, with her husband, son and daughter and last year welcomed a granddaughter to their family.
