

Aisha Lone

Aisha currently works as an Analyst with the Treasury Board Secretariat. She completed an undergraduate degree in Criminology and Socio-Legal Studies from the University of Toronto and is currently pursuing the Certified Human Resources Professional designation.

From a young age, Aisha's persistent community involvement has allowed her to reach leadership roles within various non-profit organizations. These previous roles include: Big Sister at 'Big Brothers Big Sisters' and the External Communications Outreach Director on the Social Justice Committee at the University of Toronto.

She holds a record of impactful leadership roles and has made a positive impact on her community; through a strong commitment to developing inclusivity and equity within marginalized members of society.

Currently Aisha is serving as the Human Resources Coordinator for Peel Regional Police, Crime Stoppers, where she not only engages in recruitment and training, but also mentors' volunteers in their employment and academic journey.

Her strong passion for crime prevention through collaborative efforts between the police, media, and public, has helped raise awareness for public safety.

Aisha continuously strives to create a meaningful relationship with her community through the use of her knowledge and experiences. She uses leadership qualities to inspire others to create a safe space hence is looking forward to supporting those with intellectual disabilities at Community Living Dufferin.

When not in the office, Aisha gets in touch with nature often spending quality time outdoors.
