Join us for our 2021 Annual Meeting & Trade Show

AUGUST 30 - SEPTEMBER 2 SHERATON PANAMA CITY BEACH GOLF & SPA RESORT
GENERAL SESSIONS

Edward Cole, a litigator who has helped landowners evaluate and develop mitigation banks across the Southeast, will provide an overview of the mitigation banking industry with a focus on Florida. He will review factors in evaluating the potential for a bank, the permitting process, the operation of a bank and the business of mitigation banking.

Tom Fox, Vice President at Rayonier, Inc., will share the highlights of the company’s Carbon Impact Report, which was released this spring. The results demonstrate forests’ vital importance in fighting climate change, bringing the narrative of forestry’s key involvement in global environmental sustainability to the forefront.

Damar Adams is an Associate Professor specializing in Natural Resource Economics and Policy and in the University of Florida's School of Forest, Fisheries & Geomatic Sciences. He will discuss the opportunities offered by carbon sequestration, one of many environmental benefits of sustainably managed working forests.

Clay Altizer is the Southwide Region Manager for the Forest Resources Association. He will offer an overview of the Biden Administration & an update on happenings within North Florida.

Marshall Thomas is president of F&W Forestry Services, Inc., one of the nation’s oldest and largest forest management & consulting firms. He will provide a forecast for the forest industry in the Southeast, with a special focus on Florida.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Jessica Ireland, Elise Cassie & Ann Dunn (from left) of Project Learning Tree will introduce forestry professionals to resources and activities to help teach about trees, forests & sustainable forest management.

Jimmy Roberts is the Florida Forest Service’s Bureau Chief of Forest Management, which directs & administers statewide programs for private, nonindustrial landowners. He will provide an overview of the Forest Stewardship & Tree Farm Programs.
