

Course Listing*

Master's of Science in SLP

Semester 1: Fall

- Intro to Clinical Speech Language Pathology (1 credit)
- Professional Issues/Topics in Speech Language Pathology: Level 1 (1 credit)
- Anatomy & Physiology of the Speech & Vocal Mechanism (2 credits)
- Anatomy & Physiology of the Speech & Vocal Mechanism Lab (2 credits)
- Acoustics and Psychoacoustics (3 credits)
- Child Language Development and Usage (3 credits)
- Audiology for Speech Language Pathology (2 credits)
- Audiology for Speech Language Pathology Lab (2 credits)

Semester 2: Spring

- Clinical Externship in Speech Language Pathology: Level 1 (1 credit)
- Diagnostic Methods in Speech Language Pathology (2 credits)
- Neuromotor Speech Disorders (3 credits)
- Voice Disorders (3 credits)
- Geriatric Dysphagia and Airway Management (3 credits)
- Child Language Disorders (3 credits)

Semester 3: Summer – Live online instruction

- Clinical Externship in Speech Language Pathology: Level 2 – Full-time (1 credit)
- Role of SLP in Schools (Optional Elective) (3 credits)
- Syndromes and Craniofacial Anomalies (3 credits)
- Pediatric Swallow and Airway Management (2 credits)
- Research Methods and Clinical Assessment of Literature (3 credits)

Semester 4: Fall - Live online instruction

- Professional Issues/Topics in Speech Language Pathology: Level 2 (1 credit)
- Clinical Externship in Speech Language Pathology: Level 3 – Full-time (1 credit)
- Communicating with Patients and Families (3 credits)
- Aphasia Rehabilitation (3 credits)
- Cognitive and Higher-Level Language Disorders (3 credits)
- Alaryngeal Speech and Management of Head/Neck Cancer (2 credits)

Semester 5: Spring

- Professional Issues/Topics in Speech Language Pathology: Level 3 (1 credit)
- Clinical Externship in Speech Language Pathology: Level 4 (1 credit)
- Master Clinician Observations (1 credit)
- Capstone Project (1 credit)
- Stuttering and Related Fluency Disorders (3 credits)
- Augmentative and Alternative Communication (3 credits)
- Speech-Language for the Hearing Impaired (3 credits)

* Disclaimer: All courses subject to change as per state regulations.