NOTE: The Magicians' Alliance of Eastern States is not a Magic Society, but, as its names implies, does an alliance comprise members of all magic groups. It's Constitution and By-Laws are patterned after those of the National Magic Organizations; therefore, in becoming affiliated it does not in any way interfere with any organization you may now belong to or have joined in the past.

I, the undersigned, do hereby pledge that I will abide by the Constitution, By-Laws and Code of Ethics of the Magicians' Alliance of Eastern State. I also agree that should I be found and adjudged guilty of violating this pledge, or of conduct unbecoming a member, by the Body in Session, I shall be expelled from the Alliance

This membership is vouched for by the undersigned member or State representative and duly recommended for membership.
