Surveys

Surveys generally begin at $30,000 plus sample cost, usually estimated at $6,000, and take 4-6 weeks to complete. If the timeline is less than four weeks, a survey may be completed for a rush fee. The 50% upfront nonrefundable payment is for the survey's design, fielding, and oral top-line findings. Based on these findings, the client may or may not request a final, written report.

Expert Reports

Rebuttal and 'white paper' briefs, depending the topic and substance, generally begin at $20,000 and require 2-12 weeks to complete.
