Budget

Old Business

The RLA will look into the date for the application of the weed treatment and hope observe the application process.

The budget amount allotted will cover the cost of the lake patrol and boat launch attendant

New Business

Dennis Overfield is the new RLA new chairman of RLA and Dick Smith is the co-chair. Dick will continue to approve the expenditures for the RLA.

Mentioned during the February meeting Tom Baehr will head up weed mat activities for the 2017 season. The RLA currently has two mats to place into the lake and hope to acquire more for the season. Discussion about where to keep the RLA boat took place, a RLA member has offered to keep the boat docked in front of his home. The lake patrol person will be able to come and go as needed. Dennis will check the status of the RLA boat registration.

Dick is still in the process of filling the lake patrol/boat launch positions. The board will review the hours needed at the boat launch.

Rob Recor has set the safe boating course for March 25th at the Rogers Lake Clubhouse from 9am-5pm, the cost is $100. Flyers have been distributed and The Day paper will post the information in the paper. The CPR course will be held May 13th at the Rogers Lake Clubhouse.

CT Federations of Lakes Conference is April 29th, 2017 in New Haven, there will be a representative from RLA attending.

Dennis has received a few requests for lake events.

Motion to adjourn was made by Dick and Tom second, motion passed by unanimous vote. The meeting ended at 8:12 PM.
