Clues

1. For some Presidents, like the dearly-missed Obama, there is a shake-up in the first term mid-term that puts Congress under the _____ of the other party. HELM / HLM
2. According to the Riddle of the Sphinx, we stand on two of these at noon. FEET / FT
3. One ticket to this (although maybe not to the Hall of this) is to score just at the end of the second quarter, just ask James Harrison. FAME / FM
4. Two team owners and two featured halftime performers, but none of the players, are this. FEMALE / FML

5. One type of chicken wings. HOT / HT
  6. He (it?) might say "I'm sorry, Dave, I'm afraid I can't agree humans are the end of evolution, at best for you it's more like half-time." H.A.L. / HAL / HL
  7. Oft-heard QB instruction, or lead-in to an instruction. Pay attention! HUT / HT
  8. So successful has been the marketing of the extra-football events, like the ads and the show, that even those who don't know a field goal from a touchdown have this about the Superbowl (abbr.). FOMO (FEAR OF MISSING OUT) / FM
  9. Yesterday was Superbowl ___IV (aka Superbowl 54). L / L
  10. Geena's role in a (halfway!) eponymous film that apparently--one is dubious*-- is now considered a study in women's mid-life crises. But nice to meet you for the first time Brad Pitt. THELMA / THLM
- (*one doesn't exactly know what to say when early 30s is considered mid-life.)
11. Some people are surprised when their _____bit resets steps at midday. FIT / FT
