

(Greenwich Village) Resident
Puzzle Letters: R, S, D, N, T

Setka
5x5

1	1	2	3	3
4	4	2	3	5
6	7	7	7	5
8	8	9	9	9
10	10	10	10	10

Clues

1. _____ St. Vincent Millay, famous village poet, feminist, and LGBTQ icon.
2. In "Kafka Was the Rage: A Greenwich Village Memoir," author Broyard talks about taking classes at this school (initials only) in the post-war (post WWII) era, where he learned about "the new trends in art, sex, and psychosis."
3. Back in the day, one might leave one's comfortable upper east side apartment and head to the village for some outre art and maybe a _____ affair.

4. The average and median salary and _____ of village residents has skyrocketed.
5. Associate the Village with bohemia? Not so fast! New York State was among the last, if not *the* last, in the nation to adopt no-fault divorce. If in the 40s or 50s, as the result of the affair in clue 3, you needed a divorce, you may have needed to travel and stay for a few weeks in this city, once known as the divorce capital of the country.
6. Name of scary antagonist in The Pope of Greenwich Village.
7. Jane or Christopher.
8. Even when NYC was _____ bankruptcy, Greenwich Village was popular (and fared better than its neighbor to the east).
9. Feeling after having eaten at Carbone or other delicious Greenwich Village restaurants.
10. Nearly 100-year-old independent bookstore on Broadway.