PRESENTING THE CAST

BILL SHELL - A native of Yosemite National Park, California, is presently Sports Director for KMAG-FM radio here in Fort Smith. Bill has appeared in "Three Men On A Horse", "Stalag 17", and "12 Angry Men" at FSLT.

GINGER LANGSTON - Is no newcomer to FSLT. Past experience includes character parts in "Send Me No Flowers", and "Design for Murder", a companion and maid in "Kind Sir", and the mother in "Picnic".

JUDY SCHLIEFF - Previous experience includes "Little Mary Sunshine" at FSLT. Also an active member in Little Theatres in Ft. Huachuca, Arizona, and Levorino, Italy. Her hobbies include singing and dancing.

LEANNA MATTEN - This is her first role in a FSLT production. A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, she has lived in Fort Smith for the past 14 years. Leanna works for McConnell-Schaffer Insurance Agency.

JIM HALE - Moved to Fort Smith in 1963 from Tulsa, Oklahoma. He participated in high school and PTA plays, but this is his first time to take a part in a Little Theatre production. Jim is the owner of the Fort Smith Acoustical Company.

DORIS CLEMENT - Is a newcomer to the Little Theatre. She is originally from Little, Rock, Arkansas, and has lived in Fort Smith for one year. She is employed at Arkansas Best Freight.

LARRY GARNER - Is a 1965 graduate of North Little Rock High School, where he was an active member of the Thespians. His first show with FSLT was "12 Angry Men". He is the owner of Garner Janitor Service and Advertising Manager for Creekmore Insurance Company.

ART DARLING - Entered the professional theatre in "Off Broadway" shows in 1953 and for 3 years directed the Children's Theatre for IBM, Inc., Johnson City, New York. He has been a member of various theatres in the United States. Art is a new resident in Fort Smith and says, "This theatre is by far the most modern and advanced of all the Little Theatre groups I have had the pleasure of working with, and I look forward to a very interesting sojourn here in the foothills of the Ozarks."

JACK MOORE - Appeared in the summer musical "Brigadoon" in 1965. Jack is employed by Johnston's Quality Flowers.

TED FELLINGER - Is a familiar face to those who attend FSLT shows. Ted has been an active member of the Little Theatre for the past 15 years. He is manager of the Automotive Store in Van Buren.

JOHN GARNER - Is a native of Paris, Texas, and attended high school and college in Oklahoma. John worked in Hot Springs Little Theatre and has appeared in FSLT in "Stalag 17", "Boy Friend", "12 Angry Men", and "Death of A Salesman". He is a disc jockey for KFSA radio.

JACK HORTON - Played the role of the Jury Foreman in "12 Angry Men" in the fall of 1966. He recently joined the staff of the Ormond Motion Picture Company and will be working with their company in Nashville, Tennessee, beginning in April.

DICK DELONG - Was a member of the first Board of Directors of FSLT formed in 1948. He had a part in the second show to be presented which was "John Loves Mary". He has appeared in "Caine Mutiny Court Martial", "Mister Roberts", and "12 Angry Men". Dick is Vice-President and Treasurer of United Savings Association in Fort Smith.

BROOXINE KIDDER - Has appeared in two other FSLT productions and has also done a lot of work backstage. We are glad to have Brooxine take a part again in one of our productions.

BRAD KIDDER - Is not a new face by far to the FSLT. Brad has worked in the Little Theatre for several years. He has appeared in several shows including "Mister Roberts", "Three Men On A Horse", "12 Angry Men", and "Stalag 17". Brad is associated with Kidder Insurance Agency.

DR. HUGH LEWING - This is Dr. Lewing's first time to work in FSLT, and of course, he is playing the part of the medical examiner. We are happy to welcome Dr. Lewing to the Little Theatre.

JOE LUTZ - Joe's role as the Fuller Brush Man is really nothing new to him as he has been working for the Fuller Brush Company for the past 7 years. This is Joe's first time to take a part in FSLT.
