

Note from the Director

Thank you for coming to support the Fort Smith Little Theatre and the production of Make Believe. It has been my honor and privilege to work with this group of talented individuals. Thank you to the FSLT Board for giving me the opportunity to direct this show. Thank you to my cast and crew who have worked tirelessly to make this project a success. Thank you to my family and friends for their constant support, and most importantly to Jesus Christ who gives me grace and purpose every day. This show has been a journey for each us—a journey I hope you will take with us. So, sit back, relax, and enjoy Make Believe!

Cast Biographies

Amanda Hiatt (Natasha) is a frequent performer at FSLT. She most recently starred as Betty in FSLT's musical production of White Christmas and as a number of characters in the radio play of It's a Wonderful Life. Amanda also recently directed Twelve Angry Men at FSLT.

Jamie Lambdin (Lena) is a student at Alma High School. She is best remembered by FSLT audiences for her role as Jo in Little Women. She has also appeared in An Evening of One Acts and in Emma.

Duff Taylor (Michael) is a veteran performer at FSLT. He has recently appeared as Clark in Hickory Dickory Dead and Mr. Weston in Emma. He is set to direct FSLT's next season production Leading Ladies.

Jill Ledbetter (Lydia) is a long-time performer at FSLT. She has most recently appeared in An Evening of One Acts, but she is best remembered as the mother in A Christmas Story.

Stephen Martin (Marcus) has appeared in a number of FSLT productions including roles in Black Comedy, Little Women and Hickory Dickory Dead.

Robert Montgomery (Lieutenant Harris) is a welcome addition to FSLT both on and off-stage. He made his debut last summer in the ensemble of Emma and has already made an impression working as assistant stage manager for Twelve Angry Men.
