

Parish Council Highlights for January 30, 2019

Together In Ministry Goal Setting Initiative

Parishioners gave their input on worship, ministry, community and temporal goods future goals on the January 19/20 weekend. There were 144 ideas recorded. They will be filtered through and a list of viable goals created. Ideas pertaining to specific ministries will be forwarded to them. Once organized, these ideas will be shared with the parish. Thank you to all who participated in this survey!

Abuse Prevention Refresher Course

The Archdiocese has instituted an abuse prevention refresher course called the Praesidium Safety Equation. It is to be completed by all church volunteers every two years following the Call to Protect workshop. It is a 30 minute online video that may be taken on your own at home or in organized groups, depending on what each ministry head would like to do. Each volunteer will need login information which will be supplied by our volunteer coordinator.

Archbishop Smith's Parish Visit

Archbishop Richard Smith will be visiting Holy Trinity on February 24. He will be presiding at the 11:00am Mass then hosting an open forum with parishioners in the hall. Everyone is invited.
