

A Father's Vow

Daughter's Name

My beautiful, loving daughter. I love you more than I ever knew was possible. The joy you bring to my life is without compare. You are an angel from heaven. I vow to treat you with the total reverence you deserve. I will live my life as an example for you, showing kindness, trust, patience and respect. I will be here for you, throughout your life, whenever you need me. I will offer guidance to teach you the importance of living your life as a loving, caring person.
