

A Father's Vow

Son's Name

My cherished son, I love you without compare. You mean the world to me. You bring such unbelievable joy to my life. I will always live my life as an example for you to use as a foundation by which to live your life. I am honored to be your father and vow that I will be here for you every step of your life. I vow to show respect, kindness, charity and honesty to everyone in my life, to give you the necessary guidance, as you learn the most important lessons in life.
