

A Mother's Vow

Son's Name

My bright, handsome son, I will love you for eternity. It is my want for you to only have the very best life and world in which to live. May I live my life as a lesson, to teach you the good you can bring to others. I vow to live my life as a role model of charity, kindness, compassion and honesty for others. With all the love for you in my heart, I will help you in every way possible, to make your life a lesson in love for everyone. You can forever count on me to be by your side.
