1. New Business

Planning Commission

- Grace Stamper notified the Fiscal Court Office of her decision to resign her position the City of Glencoe will replace and advise.
- The newest member of the Planning Board, Casey Stewart, was welcomed and had already been sworn in by the Judge prior to the meeting.
- Duly Authorized Public Meeting to entertain a request for a Text Amendment from the Glencoe City Council to correct a clerical error involving firearm ranges that is currently in conflict with a City Ordinance against the discharge of a firearm within the city limits.
- This amendment is allowed under KRS 100.211 which provides that a proposal for a text amendment may be made by the legislative body.
- The notice was posted in the Gallatin County News.
- Attached in your packet is the Notice of Public Hearing, the request from the Glencoe City Council for the amendment and the revised text changes.
- I have also included a current copy of the existing section to be amended.
- Are there any questions regarding the request?
- Is there a motion on this request.
