

John Combs

During his declaration (FPA w10240) for a bounty land warrant in Wayne County KY on 20Jun1855, George Rogers stated “that he was in the Battle of the Cowpens on or about the 17th or 18th day of January 1781 at this place Captain Triplett acted as Major or Colonel having been as he thinks promoted to that office, the Captain of the Company to which he belonged at this time was John Combs who was killed and we fell by his side.”
