

Alexandra Gambin

Dance Instructor

Alexandra Gambin has been dancing since she was three years old, when she was enrolled in her first ballet class. Since then, she has pursued her passion for dance by taking more classes teaching different genres so she can become more well rounded. She trained at Roxy Performing Arts Center located in Miami, Florida under the direction of Jillian Torgas-Leyva, and was also the Captain of her high school's dance team the Sabrettes under the direction of Sahara Muñoz. She is currently a student at the University of Florida earning a degree in Health Education and Behavior with hopes of becoming a nurse in the future. Alexandra cannot wait to further enrich her students' passion for dance by sharing hers, and is very eager able to work with such an amazing group of people!