Jacksonville Civic Council Elects Ed Burr Chairman

GreenPointe Holdings CEO Assumed Leadership January 1st

The Jacksonville Civic Council membership elected Edward E. "Ed" Burr as 2015-2016 Chairman. Burr is President and Chief Executive Officer of GreenPointe Holdings, LLC, a diversified holding company that brings together the necessary disciplines to create sustainable, high-value communities throughout the Southeastern United States. Burr's term began January 1, 2015 and runs through December 31, 2016.

"It is a great honor to assume the chairmanship of the Civic Council. The civic engagement and commitment to Jacksonville of this group of 70 men and women is a powerful catalyst for progress. We will continue to focus on difficult, long term issues and want to partner with other organizations to maximize impact and success", said Burr.

Throughout his career, Burr has been actively involved in business, civic and community organizations. He has served as the Chairman of the Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce and currently serves as the Government Affairs Committee Chair for the Chamber Board of Directors. Burr was named Developer of the Year by his peers and accepted a gubernatorial appointment to the Jacksonville Transportation Authority. He is actively involved in several national and regional development organizations and also serves on the Florida State University Board of Trustees, the Board at Episcopal School of Jacksonville, Fresh Ministries, ULI and is a past board member of NEFBA and the UNF Foundation. A longtime advocate for bettering the lives of children, Burr is founder of the Monique Burr Foundation for Children, a foundation committed to the prevention of child abuse.
