1. ABOUT THIS BY-LAW

1.1. Introduction

This By-law states the basic rules for the Co-op to provide housing for its members and the basic rights and obligations of the Co-op and the members.

1.2. Priority of this By-law

(a) Conflict with other by-laws

This By-law governs over other Co-op by-laws if there is a conflict. By-laws passed after this By-law can amend or add to this By-law, but they have to specifically state this.

(b) References to other by-laws

Some parts of this By-law refer to other Co-op by-laws. If the Co-op does not have the by-law referred to, the Residents' Council will decide on anything which would have been in the by-law. This does not apply if the Co-op has the by-law, but just uses a different name for it.

(c) No unauthorized commitments

No one can commit to anything dealing with occupancy rights on behalf of the Co-op unless authorized under this By-law. Any unauthorized commitment is not effective.

1.3. Repeals

The following by-laws, or parts of by-laws, or policies, are repealed when this by-law becomes effective:

- (a) The Occupancy By-law (By-law No. 3) including its Appendices A-F, but the following Appendices will be updated and reinstated by Residents' Council as policies as follows:
  - i) Appendix B "Rules and Regulations" will be updated and reinstated by Residents' Council as Occupancy Rules and Regulations,
  - ii) Appendix C "Membership Policy" will be updated and reinstated by Residents' Council as Bain Membership Policy,
  - iii) Appendix F "Pet Control By-law" will be updated and reinstated by Residents' Council as Bain Pet Policy;
- (b) The Arrears Policy amended January 20, 2004, which may subsequently be updated and reinstated by R. C. as Bain Arrears Policy;
- (c) The By-law to Amend the Co-op's Occupancy By-law; and
- (d) The Parking By-law which is to be reinstated by Residents' Council as the Bain Parking Policy.

1.4. Laws about Occupancy

(a) Main laws

In addition to this By-law certain laws affect occupancy at the Co-op. These include the following laws in addition to other government requirements.

- A. The Co-operative Corporations Act governs the Co-op. Parts of the Co-operative Corporations Act have important rules about occupancy that are not in this By-law.
- B. The Residential Tenancies Act has rules about Co-op evictions that are not in this By-law.
- C. The Ontario Human Rights Code has important rules about housing that affect the Co-op.
- D. If the Co-op received funding under an Ontario government program, it may have to follow rules about occupancy under the Housing Services Act. The Co-op's service manager may also have rules about occupancy.

(b) Changing by-laws

If any part of this By-law breaks any laws, the Residents' Council will pass by-law amendments to correct the situation and submit them to the membership for approval. This could happen if there are changes in the laws or new interpretations.

1.5. Occupancy Agreement

(a) Standard form

The Occupancy Agreement, Schedule A, is part of this By-law. All members must sign it when their membership in the Co-op begins. The Occupancy Agreement includes Appendices that have to be signed at the same time or later.

- Appendix A: Member Charges. This applies at the time of signing the Occupancy Agreement. It does not have to be updated each year when charges change.
- Appendix B: Household Members. This applies at the time of signing the Occupancy Agreement. If there are changes, the member has to notify the Co-op as stated in section 9.5 (Reporting Change in Household Size). A new Appendix B must be signed.
- Appendix C: Housing Charge Subsidy Terms. This has to be signed at the same time as the member signs the Occupancy Agreement if the member will receive housing charge subsidy. If the member gets housing charge subsidy at a later time, Appendix C has to be signed before the housing charge subsidy starts. Up-to-date Appendices A and B have to be signed at the same time.
- Appendix D: Special Needs Unit Terms. This has to be signed at the same time as the member signs the Occupancy Agreement if the member will occupy a special needs unit if any unit is so designated. If the member gets a special needs unit at a later time, Appendix D has to be signed then.

(b) Who signs

The Occupancy Agreement must be signed by all Co-op members who will occupy the unit.

The Appendices must be signed by all members and any non-member occupants 16 years old or older.

(c) Government requirements

To meet government requirements, the Appendices to the Occupancy Agreement can be changed by the Residents' Council without amending this By-law.

(d) Occupancy Agreement applies

The Co-op and the members must obey this By-law, including the Occupancy Agreement and Appendices, even if a particular member has not signed an Occupancy Agreement or Appendix or has signed an older version of the Occupancy Agreement or Appendix.

(e) Special requirements

Some by-laws and agreements only apply to certain members. Both the Co-op and those members must obey them. Examples are performance agreements and by-laws dealing with housing charge subsidy.

1.6. Special Meanings

(a) Residents' Council

The Board of Directors of Bain Apartments Co-operative Incorporated is also known as the Residents' Council.

(b) Business day

A "business day" in this By-law means any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or Ontario statutory holiday.

(c) Eviction

The Co-operative Corporations Act and the Residential Tenancies Act use words like "terminating membership and occupancy rights" or "terminating occupancy rights." In this By-law these are also referred to using words like "evicting the member" or "eviction."

(d) Government requirements

"Government requirements" means the laws, regulations or agreements with government bodies that apply to co-ops. This includes the ones stated in section 1.4 (Laws about Occupancy).

(e) Housing charge subsidy

"Housing charge subsidy" in this By-law means geared-to-income subsidy, or any other subsidy for housing charges, or any income-based or similar reduction in housing charges.

(f) Housing charges

In this By-law "housing charges" means all charges that the Co-op makes to members or that members owe the Co-op.

- "Full monthly housing charges" means the housing charges calculated monthly before deducting or crediting any housing charge subsidy.
- "Subsidized monthly housing charges" means the full monthly housing charges after deducting or crediting any housing charge subsidy.

(g) Legal action

A "legal action" under this By-law includes an application to the Landlord and Tenant Board or to the courts.

(h) Manager

In the By-law the Co-op "manager" refers to the senior staff person. That person could have a different job title. Also, in some cases the Residents' Council or manager may authorize other staff members to perform some of the manager's duties mentioned in this By-law.

(i) Performance agreement

A "performance agreement" includes an arrears payment agreement.

(j) Staff

“Staff” refers to employees of the Co-op and to property management companies and other contractors and their employees.

(k) Year

When this By-law refers to a “year”, it means a consecutive twelve-month period. This is not necessarily a calendar year. The Co-op decides what twelve-month period to use in each case.

1.7. Summary of Time Requirements

Attachment A at the end of this By-law is a summary of the time requirements for some actions by the Co-op as required under this By-law and the Co-operative Corporations Act. In case of conflict the Co-operative Corporations Act and the By-law will govern over Attachment A.

2. MEMBERS' RIGHTS

2.1. Use of a Unit and the Co-op's Facilities

The Co-op gives members the right to:

- live in their housing unit,
- use their parking space if any,
- use the Co-op's common facilities, and
- be involved in the governance of the Co-op.

Co-op by-laws limit members' rights.

3. MEMBERS' CONTRIBUTIONS

3.1. Housing Charges

(a) Monthly housing charges

Each member must pay housing charges to the Co-op. Monthly housing charges are made up of:

- the full monthly housing charges for the member's unit, less any housing charge subsidy
- parking charges, if applicable
- cable television charges, if applicable
- other monthly charges that members must pay under any of the Co-op by-laws.

(b) Other housing charges

Each member must pay additional housing charges, if applicable. These include:

- the membership fee of $2 per member (once only)
- late payment charges
- bank or financial institution charge for NSF cheques or failed payments
- the Co-op's NSF administration or failed payment charges
- other charges that members must pay under any of the Co-op's by-laws.

(c) Not included in housing charges

Housing charges do not include the following costs to a member:

- electricity for a unit
- utilities for a unit (other than electricity)
- telephone for a unit
- insurance on the member's personal property
- the member's personal liability insurance.

If the Co-op has to pay for any of these, the cost will be added to the member's housing charges.

(d) Adjusting items in housing charges

This By-law has to be amended in order to change the items that are included in housing charges or not included in housing charges.

3.2. Member Involvement

Members are expected to attend all general members' meetings and to take part in the other activities of the Co-op including but not limited to serving on Residents' Council, committees, working groups, and general Co-op up-keep.

3.3. Payment of Housing Charges

(a) Time of payment

Housing charges are due each month by 9:00 a.m. on the first business day of the month.

(b) No cash payments

Housing charges cannot be paid in cash.

(c) Pre-authorized payment

Members can pay housing charges in a pre-authorized way. This is usually more convenient for both members and Co-op staff. This includes:

- pre-authorized debit, if available at the Co-op
- pre-authorized payment, if available at the Co-op
- post-dated cheques.

Arrangements can be made at the Co-op office.

(d) Other ways to pay

Members can pay each month by debit card at the Co-op office, if debit card payment is available at the Co-op.

Members who do not pay in any of the ways stated above have to pay by monthly cheque or money order. These have to be delivered to the Co-op office. If no one is in the office, they can be put into the Co-op office mail box.

3.4. Other Charges

Members are responsible for and must pay the Co-op for any extra costs, charges or expenses caused by:

- any member of their household, or
- anyone permitted on Co-op property by the Co-op member or another member of their household.

This applies even if no Co-op by-law has been broken. Examples include debt collection charges and the cost of repairs.

3.5. Member Deposit

(a) Paying the member deposit

Members who pay full monthly housing charge must pay a member deposit to the Co-op. This deposit cannot be used by a member as the last month's housing charges. Members must pay this deposit before moving into their unit, unless the Co-op allows them to pay it over time. This could be over several months. This must be stated in a deposit payment agreement prepared by the manager and signed by the member and the Co-op.

(b) Amount of the member deposit

If members pay the full monthly housing charges, they must pay a member deposit equal to the monthly housing charges.

If members receive housing charge subsidy, they are not required to pay a member deposit equal to their monthly subsidized housing charges.

The member deposit is rounded to the nearest dollar.

(c) Adjusting the member deposit when housing charges change

If members pay the full monthly housing charges, the amount of the member deposit will be adjusted by the same percentage as any change in the member's monthly housing charges.

Members must pay the amount of any increase in the member deposit on a date set by the Residents' Council unless the members' meeting approving the new housing charges decides on a different date.

If members receive housing charge subsidy, the amount of the member deposit will be adjusted annually after the annual review of household income and composition. It will change to the new amount of the monthly subsidized housing charges.

Members must pay the amount of any increase on a date set by the Residents' Council. If there is a reduction, members will get a credit on future charges.

(d) Returning the member deposit

The Co-op will return the member deposit when the member and the member's household leave the Co-op permanently. Before returning the deposit, the Co-op can deduct any amount which the member owes because:

- the member did not give the notice required under the Co-op by-laws,
- the unit was not left in the condition required under the Co-op by-laws,
- the member owes money to the Co-op, or
- the member did not pay their last month's housing charges.

(e) Interest on the member deposit

The Co-op will not pay interest on the member deposit.

3.6. Housing Charges Are Per-Unit

Housing charges and member deposits are payable on a per-unit basis. If more than one member occupies a unit, they are each responsible for the total housing charges—not just a share of them. It does not matter if they are members of the same family or what arrangement they have between them. They must make one single monthly payment to the Co-op.

If any person moves out of the unit, the remaining members in that unit are still responsible for all the charges which apply to the unit.

3.7. Housing Charge Subsidy

Members who have a housing charge subsidy owe the Co-op the full housing charges less the subsidy. If the housing charge subsidy funds are provided by government or other funders and the Co-op does not receive the subsidy funds, the members must pay the full housing charges. It does not matter why the funds were not received. It could be because a member was not entitled to the housing charge subsidy, or the funder changed its policies, or for any other reason.

4. Setting Housing Charges

4.1. The Members Set the Full Monthly Housing Charges

The full monthly housing charges can be set only by a majority vote of the members at a general meeting. Members do this annually or more often as needed. A budget must be presented to the members for approval when they are asked to consider a change in housing charges. Existing charges continue until the members approve a change. The members may approve charges that are different from those proposed in the budget.

4.2. Annual Budgets

(a) Operating budget

Each year the Residents' Council will submit an operating budget for the next fiscal year for approval of the members at a general meeting. The operating budget must contain:

- the total expected cost of operating the Co-op
- a breakdown of the total expected cost in detailed categories
- the full monthly housing charges proposed for each unit or kind of unit
- the charges proposed for each service provided to members and charged separately, such as parking spaces.

(b) Capital budget

Each year the Residents' Council must also submit a capital budget for approval of the members at a general meeting, if it is planning capital expenses. If possible, it should be presented to the members at the same time as the operating budget. A capital budget must contain:

- the proposed capital expenses
- the proposed source of funds
- the effect of the proposed expenses on the Co-op's capital reserve
- the effect of the proposed expenses on the Co-op's future operating budget
- the estimated timeline for the capital expenses.

(c) Approval by members

Approval of an operating budget or capital budget by the members authorizes the board to spend money as stated in the budget subject to the Spending By-law, if the Co-op has one.

4.3. Notice of Proposed Budget

A general meeting can consider a proposed budget and proposed housing charges only if the notice of the general meeting states that a budget will be considered. The notice must be given as required by the Co-operative Corporations Act and the by-laws. A copy of the proposed budget must be delivered to each unit at least five days before the budget meeting. This must include the full housing charges for each type of unit if changes are proposed.

4.4. Changes in Housing Charges

(a) Beginning of changed housing charges

Any change in the full monthly housing charges will begin on the first day of the third month after the members decide on the change. The members at a general meeting can decide by a two-thirds vote on a different date for the new charges to begin, including an earlier date.

(b) Notice of change

Notice of a change in the full housing charges must be delivered to each unit within a reasonable time after the meeting. Government requirements may state a time period.

4.5. Mid-year Change in Housing Charges

The Residents' Council may decide that there should be a change in the budget and/or housing charges during a fiscal year. If so, the board will prepare a budget or statement showing the reason for the change and submit it to a meeting of the members. Section 4.3 of this By-law states how the Co-op will give notice of this meeting. Timing and other rules about any change will be as stated in sections 4.1 to 4.4 as applicable.

5. Members' Units

5.1. Maintenance and Repair

(a) Responsibility of the Co-op

The Co-op must keep all units in a good state of repair and fit for habitation. It must make sure that each unit meets all health, safety and housing standards in government requirements.

(b) Common elements

The Co-op must keep the Co-op property and all services and facilities of the Co-op to the same standard as the units.

(c) Appliances

The Co-op must provide each unit with a stove and refrigerator in normal working order.

(d) Responsibility of members

Members must keep their units reasonably neat and clean.

(e) Co-operation with the Co-op

Members must Co-operate in all reasonable ways with Co-op staff and any tradespeople or contractors who are involved in repair and maintenance. This includes making sure that their unit is ready for access as stated in section 5.2(b) (Notice of entry).

(f) Reporting problems

Members must promptly report to the Co-op any condition in their unit, the equipment in the unit or their building, if they are aware it could cause damage to their unit or Co-op property.

(g) Maintenance and Improvements By-law

The Co-op's Maintenance and Improvements By-law, if there is one, or other Co-op by-laws, may have more detail on maintenance and repair responsibilities. The Co-op and the members must obey those by-laws.

(h) Alterations and improvements

Members cannot make alterations and improvements to their units or Co-op property, unless they comply with the terms of the Maintenance and Improvements By-law, if there is one, or any other applicable Co-op by-laws. Members must get advance written permission from the Residents' Council, together with all required permits and other approvals, unless those by-laws say something else.

(i) Changing locks

Members cannot change their locks without advance written permission from the Co-op. They have to give the Co-op keys to new locks or cards, fobs or other things needed for access.

(j) Neglect of responsibilities

If members do not fulfill their responsibility under this section, the Co-op can do what is necessary to correct the situation. Those members have to pay the cost.

(k) Moving out of the unit

When members move out of a unit, they have to leave it clean and undamaged, barring reasonable wear and tear.

5.2. Entry to units

(a) Right of entry

The Co-op may enter a unit under the following circumstances: (i) with the permission of the member, or (ii) without permission of the member provided that proper notice has been given, or (iii) without permission of the member provided that the Co-op has reasonable grounds to believe there is an emergency.

(b) Notice of entry

After giving a member 48 hours written notice, someone designated by the Co-op can enter a unit, at any reasonable time, for:

- maintenance inspections, regular or special
- maintenance, repairs or renovations, or
- any other reason which the Residents' Council decides.

(c) Showing unit

After giving a member 24 hours written notice, the Co-op can enter the unit to show it to a prospective occupant at any reasonable time. The Co-op can do this if:

- the members have given notice to end their membership and occupancy rights, or
- the Co-op has given notice of a Residents' Council decision to evict the member.

(d) Time of entry

Any entry notice can give a time range and not necessarily a specific time. The time range can be longer than one day and the notice can allow more than one entry into a unit. The member does not have to be present at the time of entry.

(e) One notice per unit

Only one notice needs to be given under this section for all members and others in a unit.

5.3. Damage Rendering Unit Uninhabitable

(a) Major damage

If there is major damage affecting a large number of units, the Residents' Council will examine the situation and propose a solution. The membership will make the final decision at a members' meeting.

(b) Other damage

If only one or a small number of units are damaged, the Residents' Council will consult with the members living in the units to deal with the situation. If those members do not agree with the proposed solution, the membership will make the final decisions at a members' meeting. The Residents' Council can give these decisions priority over the internal and external waiting lists.

(c) Things to decide

The Residents' Council and members will consider questions such as the following:

- Should the unit be repaired?
- How quickly?
- When will the members be required to move out?
- When will the members be entitled to move back?
- Will there be any charges to the members during the period?
- Are there any available units that the members can occupy until their unit is repaired?
- Should there be any priority on the Co-op's internal or external waiting list?

(d) Limit of Co-op responsibility

The Co-op does not have to provide a housing unit, or pay for increased housing charges, or rent to an outside landlord, or any other costs, because of damage unless the costs are covered by the Co-op's insurance or are payable by a government or other subsidy provider. The Co-op does not have to repair a unit and can terminate membership and occupancy rights because of damage if that is part of the decision under this section.

(e) What is damage?

Damage under this section is anything that makes a unit uninhabitable. It could be a specific event, such as a fire, or a condition like mould or insect infestation.

5.4. Members' Insurance

The Co-op, Co-op staff, contractors and other members will not have any liability to a member or a person in a member's household for things that would be covered by a normal renter's or Co-op member's insurance policy. It does not matter what caused any loss and it does not matter whether the member or anyone in the household had any insurance.

Members should obtain public liability insurance and property insurance for their unit.

6. Use of Units

6.1. Residences

Units must be used as private residences for members, their households and other persons allowed by this By-law.

6.2. Principal Residence

Each member must use the member's Co-op unit as the member's principal residence and personally occupy it. A member may not be absent from the Co-op unit for a total of more than three months in any year without the permission of the Residents' Council. The unit must remain the member's principal residence while the member is absent. Members will be considered absent from their units even if they visit them for short periods. Government requirements or Co-op by-laws may set limits on absence from units for members who receive housing charge subsidy. Members who receive housing charge subsidy should check section 8.6(a) (Sub-Occupancy [and Absence from Unit]—Housing charge subsidy).

6.3. Related Uses

(a) Related uses permitted

“Related uses” are typical home business uses that are related or incidental to the use of a unit as a member's principal residence. Members can have one or more related uses, if:

- they inform the Co-op in writing of their related use or uses
- the use is permitted by government requirements, including zoning by-laws
- the use does not create disturbance beyond what is appropriate in a residential community like the Co-op, such as by too much noise or too many visitors
- the use does not involve excessive demands on Co-op utilities and services, such as electricity, and
- Co-op by-laws are obeyed.

(b) No rooming or boarding houses

Related uses do not include using a unit as a rooming house, boarding house, short-term rentals, or providing food or lodging for others or renting space or anything similar. Those uses are prohibited except for sub-occupancy and sharing permitted under this By-law.

(c) Insurance and liability

A member must have all insurance that is reasonable for a related use including any insurance that is needed to meet government requirements. Liability insurance must name the Co-op as an additional insured. The member must annually provide the Co-op a current copy of the insurance policy and any changes. The member will obey any directions by the Co-op about the insurance so that it will protect the Co-op in addition to the member. The member will be responsible for any claims against the Co-op, Co-op staff, contractors and other members and occupants that are connected to any related use by the member.

6.4. No Transfer of Membership or Occupancy Rights

Members cannot transfer their membership or their occupancy rights to anyone else.

6.5. No Profit from Unit

(a) When leaving Co-op

Members must not profit, directly or indirectly, when they leave the Co-op.

(b) Sub-occupancy or sharing

Members must not profit, directly or indirectly, when they allow others to use their unit. This includes sub-occupancy of the unit when the member is away or any sharing arrangement.

(c) Examples

Examples of profit are key money and placing too great a value on the furnishings of a unit. Profit does not include guests or sub-occupants paying their fair share of the housing charges and other household costs if it is not a hidden profit on the housing charges.

6.6. Co-op's Insurance

Members must not break any obligation that the Co-op has to its insurance companies. The use of a member's unit must not increase the Co-op's insurance costs or any other cost or liability of the Co-op.

7. Behaviour

7.1. Prohibited Conduct

The Co-op is a community which includes all the members and other residents, visitors, neighbours, and staff (together, “the Community”). Co-op members must not harass, obstruct, coerce, threaten or interfere with any other member of the Community. Co-op members must not make or allow any noise, nuisance or other act that unreasonably disturbs or interferes with any other member of the Community. Co-op members must not commit any illegal act in their units or on Co-op property.

7.2. Human Rights

Co-op members must respect the human rights of the Community. Co-op members must obey the Ontario Human Rights Code and not do anything that would discriminate against or harass any other member of the Community in a way that would breach the Human Rights Code. Co-op members must strive for an environment at the Co-op that is fair, inclusive and respectful of people’s dignity.

7.3. Violence

Co-op members must not commit violence against any other member of the Community. Violence can be real or threatened. Violence can be physical, psychological and/or sexual. Child abuse is a kind of violence. Violence against another person in the same household is domestic violence.

7.4. Domestic Violence

(a) Not tolerated

The Co-op does not tolerate domestic violence. Members who commit domestic violence may be evicted.

(b) Rights of victim

Members who are victims of domestic violence while they live at the Co-op can:

- ask the Residents' Council to evict any person who commits domestic violence
- request emergency housing charge subsidy if available under the Co-op by-laws and subject to any applicable government requirements

(c) Eviction

Under Article 12 (Dealing with Problems) the Residents' Council can evict anyone who has committed domestic violence at the Co-op. A complaint from the victim is not necessary. The board can accept the following as proof that domestic violence occurred:

- a restraining order or peace bond is in effect at the time the Notice to Appear is issued
- terms of bail allowing no contact are in effect at the time the Notice to Appear is issued, or
- the offending member has been convicted of an offence against the victim.

7.5. Explanations

Violence and harassment can be based on a prohibited ground under the Ontario Human Rights Code or on other grounds. Criticism of the job performance of the Residents' Council and staff is not harassment or a breach of section 7.1 (Prohibited Conduct) if it is made in a reasonable and constructive way. The Residents' Council does not have to wait until any court charges are heard before evicting someone in the case of violence or other illegal acts.

7.6. Calling Police and Other Authorities

Co-op staff is required to contact the police, children's aid society and other authorities in case of violence or illegal acts.

7.7. Acts of Others

Co-op members are responsible for any act or failure to act by

- any member of their household, and
- anyone permitted on Co-op property by the Co-op member or another member of their household.

Members must make sure that none of those persons does anything that would break this Article or other parts of the Co-op by-laws. Co-op members may be evicted as a result of acts or failures to act by those persons and will have to pay for any damage caused by them.

8. Members' Households and Guests

8.1. Basic Requirements

(a) Who is part of a household

In the Co-op's by-laws, household means:

- a member
- any other members living in the unit
- children of the member who are under sixteen and live in the unit
- children of the member who have turned sixteen and continue to live in the unit, and
- long-term guests approved by the Residents' Council under this Article.

Someone is considered a child of a member if they would be considered the member's child under the Ontario Family Law Act.

(b) Who is not part of a household

Only persons mentioned in paragraph (a) are part of a member's household. Other persons can stay in a member's unit only as casual guests or sub-occupants and only if permitted by this By-law. Members must not allow anyone other than the persons referred to in paragraph (a) and this paragraph to use their unit.

(c) Non-member occupants

Occupants of a unit who are not members have:

- no right to occupy the unit independent of the members
- no right to occupy any other unit in the Co-op
- no right to a place on the Co-op's internal waiting list.

8.2. Addition of a Member

Someone can apply for membership in the Co-op as an addition to an existing household. The application must also be signed by all Co-op members in the household. The applicant will become part of the household if accepted as a member. If not accepted, the applicant can occupy the unit only as a long-term guest if approved by the board.

8.3. Turning Sixteen

Persons in a member's household who turn sixteen can apply for membership in the Co-op. The application must also be signed by all Co-op members in the household. If persons who turn sixteen do not apply for membership or are not accepted as members, they will automatically be considered long-term guests. A long-term guest agreement is not necessary.

8.4. Long-term Guests

(a) Approval needed

Members can make a written request to the Residents' Council to approve someone as a long-term guest. The request must be signed by all Co-op members in the household. The proposed guest must sign the request and a consent to a credit check. The member and the proposed guest must provide any other information requested by the Co-op.

(b) Length of time

The Residents' Council can approve a long-term guest for a fixed period or for a maximum period or for an indefinite period. This must be stated in the Residents' Council's approval motion. If approval is for a fixed or maximum period, the person will no longer be a long-term guest at the end of the period. Paragraph (d) (Cancelling long-term guest status) does not apply.

(c) Long-term guest agreement

All members in the household and their guests must sign and comply with a long-term guest agreement, such as Schedule B attached to this By-law.

(d) Cancelling long-term guest status

The Residents' Council can cancel long-term guest status or change the terms of long-term guest status at any time. This includes long-term guests under section 8.3 (Turning Sixteen). The Residents' Council must give written notice to the members in the household and the guest of any meeting where it will be discussed and of the Residents' Council's decision. Only one notice needs to be given for all members and others in a unit. There is no right of appeal.

(e) Housing charge subsidy calculation

The income of long-term guests is normally to be included in household income when housing charge subsidy is calculated. This is subject to government requirements and the Co-op's Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if it has one.

8.5. Casual Guests

Members can have only a reasonable number of casual guests.

A casual guest may not stay at the Co-op for more than three months in any year. Persons will be considered as staying at the Co-op even if they are away from the Co-op for short periods. If members wish someone to stay longer, they must ask the Residents' Council to approve that person as a long-term guest as stated in section 8.4 (Long-term Guests).

8.6. Sub-Occupancy [and Absence from Unit]

(a) Housing charge subsidy

Section 8.6 applies to all members, but note special rules also apply to members who receive housing charge subsidy and want to have a sub-occupant or be absent from the Co-op.

- Government requirements state that members who receive housing charge subsidy cannot have a sub-occupant. This is stated in Appendix C attached to the member's Occupancy Agreement.
- Government requirements may state that members who are absent from their unit will lose their housing charge subsidy and it will not be reinstated when they return.
- Government requirements may set a maximum time a member can be absent before losing housing charge subsidy.
- If the Co-op has a Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, it may say some of the same things. It may also say that housing charge subsidy will be suspended during some absences without being cancelled.

Members who receive housing charge subsidy, and who are thinking about sub-occupancy or other absence from the Co-op, should find out what effect it may have on their housing charge subsidy.

(b) Temporary absence from Co-op

If a member wants to leave the Co-op temporarily, the member can allow someone to occupy their unit as a sub-occupant. All Co-op members in the household and all sub-occupants must sign and comply with a Sub-Occupancy Agreement approved by the Co-op before the sub-occupancy begins. Schedule C attached to this By-law is a form of Sub-Occupancy Agreement.

(c) Sub-occupancy longer than one month

Members must have the written approval of the Residents' Council to permit a sub-occupancy for more than one month.

(d) Maximum sub-occupancy

Normally a sub-occupancy cannot last more than three months. In unusual circumstances the Residents' Council can allow a longer term but not longer than twelve months. Members cannot have more than [2] sub-occupants per year.

8.7. Evicted Persons

If someone has been evicted from the Co-op or has left after a Notice to Appear was issued or in a situation of domestic violence or owing money to the Co-op, a member cannot permit that person to be a casual or long-term guest or a sub-occupant without advance written approval from the Residents' Council. The Co-op may treat that person as a trespasser and may remove him or her from Co-op property. The member who permits that person on the Co-op's property will be considered in default under this By-law.

9. Household Size

9.1. Purpose of Household Size Requirements

The Co-op has established minimum household size rules in order to balance the Co-op's obligation to make the best use of Co-op property and the right of Co-op members to have long-term security in their units.

9.2. When Household Size Rules Apply

The minimum household size rules in this Article apply in the following situations:

(a) New members

A household cannot be allocated a unit and move into the Co-op unless the household size meets the minimum requirement for that unit.

(b) Moving to a different unit

A household cannot move to a different unit unless the household size meets the minimum requirement for the new unit or gets closer to it.

(c) When a household is reduced in size

Section 9.4 (Not Meeting Minimum Household Size) applies if a member of the household stops occupying a unit and the remaining members in the household do not meet the minimum requirement for the unit.

9.3. Minimum Household Size

The minimum number of persons for each of the Co-op's unit types is:

- one-bedroom 1 person
- two-bedroom 2 persons
- three-bedroom 3 persons
- four-bedroom 4 persons

9.4. Not Meeting Minimum Household Size

(a) When this section applies

This section applies when household size no longer meets the minimum requirement for the unit that the household occupies. This could be because a household member gave the Co-op a written notice of withdrawal or stopped living in the Co-op as a principal residence or because an occupant died.

(b) Requirement to move

The remaining household must move to a unit that meets the minimum requirement if the Co-op has one. If the Co-op does not have one, the remaining household must move to a unit that is closer to the minimum requirement if the Co-op has one. A household can only be required to move once in two years for each time household size is reduced.

(c) Offering unit

The Residents' Council may offer the remaining household a unit in priority to the internal and external waiting lists. The board can postpone offering an available unit if the board decides that someone ahead of the remaining household on the waiting list should get that unit.

(d) Three offers

The remaining household may refuse the first two units offered to it, but must move to the third unit. A member can be evicted for failing to move to the third unit offered by the board.

(e) Health issues

The board can decide that someone does not have to move under this section for legitimate documented health reasons. Such documentation must be filed annually with the Co-op.

9.5. Reporting Change in Household Size

If the number of persons in a member's household changes, the member must give written notice of the change to the Co-op office within ten days, including the names of the persons involved.

9.6. Subsidized Households

Subsidized households have to meet any household size standards and other rules in government requirements and in the Co-op's Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if it has one. These are in addition to what is stated in this Article.

10. How Members Withdraw from the Co-op

10.1. Membership and Occupancy are Linked

Members cannot withdraw from membership without ending their occupancy rights. Members cannot end their occupancy rights without withdrawing from membership. A notice to end occupancy is also a notice to withdraw from membership and a notice to withdraw from membership is also a notice to end occupancy rights.

10.2. Ending Membership and Occupancy

This section applies when all members in a household wish to end membership and occupancy rights. The procedure is based on the requirements of the Co-operative Corporations Act.

(a) Last day of a month

Each member must give advance written notice of termination to the Co-op. The notice must state a termination date. The termination date must be the last day of a month. Membership and occupancy rights end on the termination date stated in the notice.

(b) 60 days' notice

The amount of notice given must be at least 60 days. There is an exception if the termination date is the last day of February or March.

(c) February and March

If the termination date is the last day of February, the notice can be given on or before January 1 of that year.

If the termination date is the last day of March, the notice can be given on or before February 1 of that year.

(d) Not enough notice

If a member gives less than the required notice of termination, the termination will still be effective. The termination date will be 60 days after the notice is given. If that is not the last day of a month, the termination date will be the last day of that month.

(e) No withdrawal of notice without consent

Members cannot withdraw a notice of termination without the written consent of the Residents' Council. The Residents' Council can refuse to allow members to withdraw a notice of termination. Members cannot appeal the Residents' Council's decision.

(f) Vacating early

If all persons in the household vacate the unit earlier than the termination date, the Co-op can take possession of the unit and the members and other persons in the household are not entitled to move back in. Membership and occupancy rights end on the day the Co-op takes possession. The members will owe housing charges that become due until the original termination date.

(g) If members do not vacate

If all persons in the household do not vacate the unit on the termination date or earlier, the Co-op can take legal action for an eviction order. The procedures in Articles 11 to 15 relating to eviction do not apply.

10.3. Part of Household Ends Membership and Occupancy

This section applies if a member stops occupying a unit as a principal residence, but one or more Co-op members continues to occupy the unit. This could happen following domestic violence (see section 7.4) or because a member moved out for any other reason.

(a) Notice procedure

The member who is leaving should follow the procedure in section 10.2 (Ending Membership and Occupancy), as applicable.

(b) When procedure not followed

If the procedure in section 10.2 is not followed by the member who is leaving, that person's membership and occupancy rights end on the first day that person no longer occupies the unit as a principal residence.

(c) Notice by remaining household

The members who continue to occupy the unit must notify the Co-op in writing within ten days after one of the members or a non-member occupant stops occupying the unit as a principal residence. They must do this whether or not that person gave notice of termination.

(d) Housing charge subsidy

If one person no longer occupies the unit, the remaining members in the household will not be entitled to an increase in housing charge subsidy unless government requirements or the Co-op's Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if it has one, state something else. If section 7.4 (Domestic Violence) applies, the remaining members may be entitled to emergency housing charge subsidy if available under the Co-op by-laws and subject to any applicable government requirements.

10.4. Death of a Member

(a) Membership and occupancy rights end

If a member dies, that person's membership and occupancy rights end on the date of death.

(b) If no other members occupy the unit

If no other members occupy the unit, the member's estate will be responsible for housing charges for the month in which the member died and the following month. The estate must remove all of the member's possessions by the end of that time. The estate and the Co-op can agree to an earlier date to end housing charges and to remove possessions. If possessions are not removed by the time required under this paragraph, the Co-op can remove and dispose of them without liability to anyone.

(c) If other members occupy the unit

If other members occupy the unit at the date of death, they must give the Co-op written notice of the death.

(d) Approved long-term guests

A long-term guest can apply for membership under this paragraph if

- the guest occupied the unit at the time of the member's death
- the occupancy by the guest was approved by the Residents' Council, and
- no other member occupied the unit at the time of the member's death.

A guest who is accepted for membership under this paragraph will be entitled to remain in the unit for the time being, but may be required to move under section 9.4 (Not Meeting Minimum Household Size) if that section applies. The guest will not receive the member's housing charge subsidy, but might be able to apply under government requirements or the Co-op's Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if it has one. If a guest does not apply for membership or the application is rejected, the Residents' Council can evict the guest without using the procedures in Articles 11 to 15 relating to eviction.

10.5. Vacant or Abandoned Unit

If a unit is vacant or abandoned, the Co-op can take possession or the Residents' Council can decide to take legal action. The procedures in Articles 11 to 15 relating to eviction do not apply. Membership and occupancy rights end on the day that the Co-op takes possession.

11. Dealing with Arrears

11.1. Eviction

The Residents' Council can evict a member if the member owes housing charges to the Co-op.

11.2. Non-Payment and Late Payment Procedure

Preamble

This section states procedures to ensure that member arrears are dealt with quickly and fairly. The Residents' Council can change these procedures if it decides that other procedures would be better.

(a) Late payment letter

The manager will send a late payment letter to each member who did not pay housing charges in full or arrange an arrears payment agreement by 9:00 a.m. on the first business day of the month. The letter will normally be sent before the end of the first business day of the month. Only one letter needs to be sent for all members and others in a unit.

(b) Notice to Appear

The manager will give a Notice to Appear to each member who has not paid housing charges in full or has not arranged an arrears payment agreement. This will normally be done by noon on the fifth business day of the month.

(c) Persistent late payment

Late payment includes

- failure to pay the full amount owing, and
- a failed payment as described in section 11.3(a) (Failed Payment).

Late payment of housing charges three times in any year will be considered persistent late payment. The manager will give a Notice to Appear under Article 12 (Dealing with Problems) to each member who is late paying for the third time in any year. That Notice to Appear will be in addition to a Notice to Appear for arrears under this section.

(e) Advance notice of lateness

If for legitimate reasons of financial hardship, a member cannot pay housing charges by noon on the first business day of the month, the member must let the manager know before the first business day of the month. The manager will decide if the reasons are legitimate. In that case, an arrears payment agreement may be arranged by the manager if permitted under section 11.6 (Arrears Payment Agreements) or a request for an arrears payment agreement may be submitted to the Residents' Council.

11.3. Replacement Payment

(a) Failed Payment

A “failed payment” includes:

- a cheque is returned to the Co-op by the bank or financial institution
- payment is not made to the Co-op under a pre-authorized debit plan, pre-authorized payment plan or other pre-authorized plan.

In case of a cheque this could happen because the cheque is marked NSF (not sufficient funds), Stop Payment, Account Closed or for any reasons. The same reasons and other reasons could apply in the case of a pre-authorized plan. The reason does not matter if the funds are not paid or credited to the Co-op.

(b) Replacement payment required

A member must replace a failed payment within two business days of being notified by the Co-op. Only one notice needs to be given for all members and others in a unit. A failed payment must be replaced by a certified cheque or money order or the payment must be made by debit card, if available at the Co-op.

(c) Notice to Appear

If the member does not replace the failed payment within two days of being notified, the manager will give a Notice to Appear to the member.

(d) Future payments

If the members in a household have two failed payments within a year, then for the next year the members must pay housing charges by certified cheque, money order or debit card, if available at the Co-op. The Co-op will not accept payment in any other form.

11.4. Late Payment and Failed Payment Charges

(a) Late payment charges

A member that does not pay the full housing charges by noon on the first business day of the month and has not arranged an arrears payment agreement will be charged a late payment charge of $25.00 per household. This amount may be increased by the members at a general meeting.

(b) Failed payment charges

A member will pay the amount charged to the Co-op by its bank or credit union for a returned cheque or other failed payment, plus an administration charge of $20.00 per household. This is in addition to the late payment charge, if applicable. The administration charge may be increased by the Residents' Council or the members at a general meeting.

(c) Charges are arrears

Members who do not pay their late payment charges, failed payment charges and administration charges (as well as other amounts owing to the Co-op) will be considered in arrears.

11.5. Directors in Arrears

(a) Directors' arrears policy

If directors are in arrears, it:

- undermines the Co-op's governance
- weakens the Co-op's financial management
- sends the wrong message to members of the Co-op and to government.

(b) Procedure for director arrears

If a director is in arrears, the manager will follow the steps in section 11.2 (Non-Payment and Late Payment). The manager will also report to the Residents' Council on the director's arrears at the next Residents' Council arrears meeting if the arrears are not paid in full by that time.

(c) Arrears payment agreements

Directors who sign arrears payment agreements like other members may remain directors as long as they comply with the arrears payment agreement. This does not apply to member deposit payment agreements.

11.6. Arrears Payment Agreements

(a) Before Notice to Appear

This Article applies to arrears payment agreements made with a member before a Notice to Appear has been issued. If a Notice to Appear has been issued and has not been decided by the Residents' Council, or an eviction decision has been made and is still outstanding, any agreement will be governed by Article 14 (Alternatives) or Article 16 (Legal Action).

(b) Limits of manager's authority

The manager has the authority to approve the first request from a household for an arrears payment agreement made in a year as long as the agreement provides for full payment within 60 days in addition to the normal housing charges within that time.

(c) Board's approval needed

Approval by the Residents' Council is required:

- for additional requests for an arrears payment agreement within a year
- for an arrears payment agreement where full payment will not be made within 60 days in addition to the normal housing charges within that time.

(d) Procedure for additional arrears payment agreements

If a member requests an additional arrears payment agreement within a year, the manager will submit the request to the Residents' Council along with payment terms that the member suggests. If the member goes into arrears, or deeper into arrears, before the Residents' Council considers the request and section 11.2(c) (Notice to Appear) applies, the manager will issue a Notice to Appear in addition to submitting the request.

(e) Limits

Generally, the Co-op will not approve more than one arrears payment agreement for a household in a year or an arrears payment agreement where full payment will not be made within 60 days.

(f) Non-payment

If a member does not make the payments stated in an arrears payment agreement, the manager will give each Co-op member in the household a Notice to Appear. This does not apply if the arrears payment agreement states something else.

11.7. Notice to Appear for Arrears

(a) Issuing Notice to Appear

A Notice to Appear for arrears must contain the information in Schedule D attached to this By-law. It must be given at least ten days before the Residents' Council meeting where it will be considered.

(b) Termination date

The proposed termination date in the Notice to Appear will be ten days after the Residents' Council meeting or later.

12. Dealing with Problems

12.1. Eviction

The Residents' Council can evict a member if the member has broken the by-laws in a way the Residents' Council considers serious or someone the member is responsible for under the by-laws has done so.

This includes repeated serious breaches of the by-laws even if the situation was corrected after notice was given.

12.2. Notice to Appear

(a) When Notice to Appear required

A Notice to Appear must be given to a member before the Residents' Council can decide to evict the member. It must be given at least ten days before the Residents' Council meeting where it will be considered.

(b) Information in Notice to Appear

A Notice to Appear under this Article must contain the information in Schedule E attached to this By-law.

(c) Additional information

When a Notice to Appear is given to a member, it should include copies of any written materials that the Residents' Council may consider at the meeting. Examples would be a report from the manager on the background and letters of complaint from others. The name of the person who complained and details that could identify that person can be deleted if reprisals are a possibility or for other good reasons. Irrelevant parts of the written materials may be deleted. Correspondence and notices between the Co-op and the member do not have to be included.

(d) Termination date in Notice to Appear

The proposed termination date in the Notice to Appear will be ten days after the Residents' Council meeting or later. If there is a right of appeal to the membership under this By-law, the proposed termination date in the Notice to Appear will be at least twenty days after the Residents' Council meeting.

12.3. Deciding to Give a Notice to Appear

(a) No prejudice

The Residents' Council can decide to issue a Notice to Appear. When making this decision, the Residents' Council must not prejudge the situation. It cannot make any conclusion about evicting without following the Notice to Appear process in this By-law.

(b) Other by-laws may apply

When a complaint is received by the Residents' Council or staff, or when the Residents' Council or staff becomes aware of any problem, it may be dealt with under other by-laws, such as a Human Rights By-law or a Member Relations By-law, if the Co-op has those by-laws. In addition, the Residents' Council can decide to issue a Notice to Appear instead of following the procedures in other by-laws that could be applicable.

12.4. Limits of Action by Co-op

(a) Factors to consider

The Co-op does not have to issue a Notice to Appear or take other action to deal with noise, harassment, violence, illegal acts or other behavioural issues, even if they are a breach of this By-law. The same applies to other breaches of this By-law or other Co-op by-laws. The Residents' Council has to consider things like:

- the evidence available as to what happened
- the appropriateness of eviction as a response
- the costs involved in evicting someone.

(b) No Co-op liability

The Co-op has no liability to anyone for misbehaviour by a member or anyone else, even if the misbehaviour is a breach of this By-law. An exception is that the Co-op could have liability if the person is acting officially on behalf of the Co-op.

13. Eviction Procedures

13.1. Board Meeting on Notice to Appear

(a) Member and representative can attend meeting

When a Notice to Appear has been given, the member can appear at the Residents' Council meeting and can have a lawyer or other representative. The member and a representative can speak at the meeting. They can also deliver written statements at the meeting or before the meeting. They can take notes but cannot take a visual and/or audio recording of the meeting, whether electronically or any other device. The Residents' Council sets the procedure for the meeting. The Residents' Council can limit the number of people brought by the member.

(b) Continuing meeting

If the Residents' Council decides to continue the meeting on another date, no new Notice to Appear is required if the time and place to continue the meeting is announced at the original meeting.

(c) Making decision

The Residents' Council makes an eviction decision by passing a resolution to evict a member. A quorum of the board must be present and there must be a majority vote. The Residents' Council decision should state the grounds of eviction on which the decision is based and the termination date. The Residents' Council can make its decision using Schedule F or Schedule G attached to this By-law.

(d) Date of termination

The decision can state a termination date that is later than the proposed date in the Notice to Appear.

(e) Notice of decision

Written notice of a decision to evict must be given to the member within ten days after the Residents' Council meeting. Schedule H or Schedule I attached to this By-law can be used for the notice. The Notice should normally include a copy of the eviction decision.

14. Alternatives

14.1. Alternatives to Eviction

The Residents' Council can take steps to deal with issues without eviction. These could happen after a Notice to Appear was issued or without a Notice to Appear. Some examples are:

- mediation, which could be paid for by the Co-op
- limiting access by a member or another person to the Co-op staff or office or other parts of Co-op property or requiring different ways of access
- limiting or prohibiting access by non-residents to Co-op property
- limiting contact between certain households or household members
- sending a warning letter
- signing an arrears payment agreement
- signing a performance agreement
- having a conditional eviction decision.

14.2. Conditional Eviction Decisions

When a Notice to Appear is considered by the Residents' Council, the Residents' Council can decide to evict a member, but also decide that the eviction will not go ahead if the member meets conditions stated in the decision, such as that the member does something or stops doing something as stated in the decision.

14.3. Performance Agreements

The Residents' Council can decide to sign a performance agreement in different situations. Examples include:

- A condition under section 14.2 (Conditional Eviction Decisions) could be that the member sign and comply with a performance agreement (including an arrears payment agreement).
- The Residents' Council could decide not to pass an eviction decision if a performance agreement is signed.
- The Residents' Council could decide to sign a performance agreement instead of issuing or considering a Notice to Appear.

14.4. Information to Others

(a) Limited information

The Residents' Council must limit information about a performance agreement or conditional eviction decision that it gives to a member who complained and to others.

(b) What can be disclosed

A performance agreement can state what can be told to others. If it does not state this, the Residents' Council can decide to disclose that there is a performance agreement but not personal information that led to the agreement. The Residents' Council may be able to disclose some of the details of the agreement that do not involve sensitive information.

(c) Example

For example, someone who complained can be told that there is a performance agreement that includes not playing the radio after 10.00 p.m., but not about other parts of the agreement that relate to medical treatment of the member involved.

14.5. Non-Performance by Member

(a) If member breaks conditions in eviction decision

If a member does not perform the conditions stated in a conditional eviction decision, the Residents' Council can decide to go ahead with the eviction. The member is not entitled to notice of the Residents' Council meeting, but will be given at least ten days' notice of the decision. It may not be appealed to the membership.

(b) If member breaks performance agreement

If a member does not comply with a performance agreement required by a conditional eviction decision, paragraph (a) applies. If the performance agreement was not required by a conditional eviction decision, the Residents' Council must issue a Notice to Appear if it wishes to consider eviction.

(c) Time limit in decision

The Residents' Council can set a time limit for performing the conditions in an eviction decision or a performance agreement, but if the Residents' Council has not decided to go ahead with the eviction within six months after the original decision, the Residents' Council cannot proceed to evict without a new Notice to Appear. This must be given under Article 11 (Dealing with Arrears) or Article 12 (Dealing with Problems). The same procedure will be followed as if there had not been a conditional eviction decision or a performance agreement.

14.6. Authorization of Performance Agreements

All performance agreements must be authorized by the Residents' Council except as stated in section 11.6 (Arrears Payment Agreements). The board can authorize the manager or someone else to decide on a performance agreement and/or to approve the actual wording of a performance agreement.

15. Appeals to Membership

15.1. When a Member Can Appeal

A member can appeal a Residents' Council' eviction decision to the membership if the grounds of termination are not:

- Arrears
- Domestic violence
- An act involving drugs or violence
- An illegal act, or
- An act or failure to act that impairs the safety of others.

15.2. How to Appeal

(a) Notice of appeal

A member who wants to appeal must give written notice to the Co-op office within seven days after notice of the eviction decision was given.

(b) Member's statement

A member who appeals can include a written statement with the notice of appeal. The Residents' Council will give a copy of the statement to each member with the notice of meeting or separately before the meeting. This paragraph is limited by the Co-operative Corporations Act.

(c) Board statement

If the member delivers a written statement that is distributed to the membership, the Residents' Council can deliver a written statement in response.

(d) Date of members' meeting

The members' meeting to decide on the appeal must be at least fourteen days after the notice of appeal is received. The Residents' Council can call a special meeting to decide on the appeal or put the appeal on the agenda for another members' meeting.

15.3. Appeal Information

(a) Limited information on agenda

When an eviction appeal is on the agenda for a members' meeting, the agenda will only state that there is an appeal, the name of the member or members who appealed, the unit address and a short statement of the grounds for eviction.

(b) Information package

The Co-op will prepare an information package that includes only:

- the Notice to Appear including anything attached to it
- the eviction decision
- other written information that was presented by the member or anyone else at the board meeting that made the decision.

The information does not include a member's statement referred to in sections 15.2(b) (Member's Statement) and 15.2(c) (Board Statement). Those sections will apply if the member delivers a statement under them.

(c) Personal information about others in information package

The Residents' Council may decide to omit names and/or personal information about others from the information package unless those persons give written consent to including that information.

(d) Available at office and at members' meeting

Members may come to the Co-op office during ordinary office hours after delivery of the agenda and before the members' meeting and read the information package. The information package will be available to all members at the meeting. Copies may not be made except by the Co-op and the member who appealed.

(e) Request to distribute information

The information package will not be distributed in advance of the meeting unless the member who appealed requests it before delivery of notice of the meeting. In that case the Notice to Appear and eviction decision will be distributed, but the Residents' Council may decide not to distribute some or all of the other information.

(f) Disclosure at members' meeting

Discussion at the members' meeting will normally be limited to things mentioned in the information package. If the member or member's representative brings up other things, then the Residents' Council or staff can disclose other relevant information, including personal information about the member.

(g) Personal information about others at members' meeting

If anyone wishes to raise personal information about others that is not in the information package, section 17.1(b) of this By-law applies (When members raise things about someone else). This may limit the information that can be stated by the board, staff or member who appealed.

15.4. Procedure at Members' meeting

(a) Chair

The board will decide whether the meeting will be chaired by the president, another director or an outside person.

(b) Member and representative can attend meeting

The member who appealed has the right to attend and vote at the members' meeting. The member can have a lawyer or other representative at the meeting. The member and any representative can speak at the meeting. They can also deliver written statements at the meeting.

(c) No taping

People present at the meeting can take notes but cannot take a visual and/or audio recording of the meeting, whether electronically or any other device.

(d) Secret ballot

Voting on motions about the eviction decision will be by secret ballot. This does not include procedural motions, such as a motion to end debate.

(e) Quorum

The quorum at the meeting will be the normal quorum as stated in the Organizational By-law. If the quorum is not present thirty minutes after the meeting is scheduled to start, or a quorum is not present at the time of the vote, the board decision is confirmed. The meeting cannot be continued on a later date.

(f) Membership decision

The members' meeting can confirm the Residents' Council' eviction decision, or replace it with any other decision which the Residents' Council could have made. This includes changing any terms and conditions for a performance agreement or a conditional eviction. A simple majority vote is needed. The Residents' Council decision is confirmed if the meeting does not pass a motion to change the Residents' Council decision.

(g) Effective date of decision

If a member appeals an eviction, the decision is not effective until the appeal is decided or dropped. If the appeal is not successful, the termination date will be the latest of:

- the second day after the members' meeting
- the date stated in the eviction decision
- a later date decided by the members at the meeting.

(h) When membership ends

Membership ends on the termination date in the eviction decision, even though the former member can continue to occupy the unit until the Co-op gets an eviction order from the Landlord and Tenant Board under Part V.1 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

16. Legal Action

16.1. Enforcing Eviction Decisions

The Residents' Council can decide to take legal action as a result of decisions under previous sections. The Residents' Council can choose someone to deal with legal actions for the Co-op. This will be the Co-op manager unless the Residents' Council decides something else. The Residents' Council can limit that person's authority by a board motion. The Residents' Council can designate a director or someone else to work with that person.

That person can:

- give all necessary directions to the Co-op's lawyers and paralegals
  - act as agent for the Co-op on court actions and at the Landlord and Tenant Board
  - make a settlement or other agreement.
- (a) If the member does not vacate the member unit on or before the expiry date set out in the notice given by the Co-op under subsection 12(3), the member's membership and occupancy rights nevertheless expire on the expiry date and the Co-op may obtain possession of the member unit by obtaining an order issued by the Landlord and Tenant Board under Part V.1 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 terminating the member's occupancy of the member unit and evicting the member.

16.2. Membership Rights on Eviction

Membership ends on the termination date in an eviction decision, even though the former member can continue to occupy the unit until the Co-op gets an eviction order. Since the occupant is no longer a member, the occupant cannot attend meetings of the Co-op as a member, vote or run for the Residents' Council. If the occupant was on Residents' Council, the position is automatically vacated on the day that membership ends.

(a) When membership restored

The Co-operative Corporations Act and the Residential Tenancies Act state when someone's membership and occupancy rights are considered not to be terminated. This could be because the member paid arrears by a certain time or for other reasons. When this happens, the occupant's membership is restored. The occupant can attend meetings of the Co-op as a member, vote or run for the Residents' Council. If the occupant was a director when their membership ended, that person will automatically be a director when their membership is restored.

(b) Co-op actions while occupants were not members

Any votes or actions taken by the Co-op during the time when the occupant was not a member will be valid and binding.

(c) When new Notice to Appear not needed

No new Notice to Appear or eviction decision is needed in the case of:

- repeat breaches within six months referred to in subsection 94.2(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act (Deemed termination of membership and occupancy rights)
- breaking the conditions in a mediated settlement agreement or order of the Landlord and Tenant Board as stated in subsection 94.11(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act (Deemed termination of membership and occupancy rights).

The Residents' Council can decide to go ahead with the eviction. The member is not entitled to notice of the Residents' Council meeting, but will be given notice as required under the Residential Tenancies Act. The Residents' Council decision may not be appealed to the membership.

16.3. Rights Not Cancelled

The only way the Co-op can cancel or waive any rights is under an arrears payment agreement or other performance agreement or settlement agreement authorized under this By-law and signed by the Co-op. The Co-op does not waive any Notice to Appear, eviction decision or other rights by:

- accepting arrears or compensation
- sending reminder or other letters even if incorrectly addressed "Dear Member" or similar
- recalculating housing charge subsidy
- making any error on a member ledger or other document
- accepting a cheque or other item marked "Payment in Full" or anything similar
- doing anything else except as stated at the beginning of this section.

16.4. Co-op Costs

The Co-op has the right to recover full indemnity costs (the actual legal fees and costs) of any legal action that the Co-op takes to recover money owed to it or enforce its rights under the by-laws.

17. Miscellaneous

17.1. Personal Information to Membership

(a) When members raise things about themselves

If a member appeals a Residents' Council' decision under the Co-op by-laws, or raises something at a members' meeting involving the member's personal information, the Residents' Council can disclose other relevant personal information about that member.

(b) When members raise things about someone else

A member cannot appeal a Residents' Council' decision under the Co-op by-laws about another person, or raise something at a members' meeting involving personal information about another person, unless the other person has given written approval. The member must show the written approval to the chair of the meeting. It may be examined by any member. If the written approval is given, the chair can allow members to discuss that personal information and the Residents' Council and staff can disclose other relevant personal information about the person. If that person does not give approval, the appeal or discussion is out of order.

(c) Appeal information

If a member distributes written information to the membership about an appeal under the Co-op by-laws or other decision involving their own personal information, the board can disclose other relevant personal information about that member. The same thing applies if the Co-op is required to distribute the information under section 15.2(b) (Member's statement) of this By-law.

17.2. Legal Actions by Members

If a member sues the Co-op or takes other legal action against the Co-op, such as a complaint to the Ontario Human Rights Tribunal, the Residents' Council should normally get legal advice about any disclosure or decision not to disclose it to the membership.

17.3. External Complaints

If a member makes a complaint about the Co-op to anyone outside the Co-op, or sends anyone outside the Co-op a copy of an internal complaint, the Residents' Council is entitled to respond to that complaint to the same persons or organizations. In doing so it can disclose relevant personal information about the member and the member's household. Examples include complaints sent to bodies like the Agency for Co-operative Housing, Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation, a service manager, a government official, a newspaper, the Co-operative Housing Federation of Canada or a local Co-op housing federation.

17.4. Co-op Employees

(a) Not members

A permanent full-time employee of the Co-op cannot be a member of the Co-op or live in the household of a member.

(b) Serving on Residents' Council

Members serving on the Resident's Council cannot be employed or paid by the Co-op in any capacity (permanent, contract, casual).

(c) Live-in staff

If the Residents' Council decides that the duties of an employee or the employee of a contractor make it necessary to live in the Co-op, the employee and the employee's household will be tenants of the Co-op, not members. The Residents' Council must make sure that there is a written agreement stating that the tenancy ends when the employment or contract ends or as soon after that as legally required. The Residents' Council must pass a motion before the employment starts designating the employee's unit as a non-member unit.

17.5. Non-Member Units

This By-law applies only to member units. The Co-op does not have to follow the procedures in this By-law when dealing with non-member units or non-residential spaces, if any. Leases, agreements or government requirements govern the Co-op's relations with them.

17.6. Non-Members in a Member Unit

Parts of this By-law apply to non-members living in a member unit. In dealing with non-members who are occupying a member unit, the Residents' Council may take any action permitted by law.

17.7. Proof

(a) When required

When investigating compliance with the Co-op's by-laws or government requirements, the Co-op can ask a member to prove:

- that the member's unit is the member's principal residence
- that the member is in compliance with the Co-op's by-laws regarding any arrangement with guests or sub-occupants
- the member's household composition
- the member's household income if the member receives housing charge subsidy
- other things to show compliance with government requirements, this By-law and other Co-op by-laws, as applicable.

(b) Member response

If asked, members must give complete proof and details about the things stated in paragraph (a). This request can include originals or copies of any documents and sworn statements from everyone involved. Failure to provide proof under this section is a breach of this By-law. If a member fails to provide proof, the Co-op can conclude that this is evidence that the member is not complying with government requirements, this By-law or other Co-op by-laws, as applicable.

17.8. Serving Documents

(a) Ways to serve documents

Notices and other documents relating to an eviction are considered served on a member if given in any of the following ways:

- handing it to the member
- handing it to an adult person in the unit
- leaving it in the mail box where mail is ordinarily delivered to the member
- if there is no mail box, sliding it under the door of the member unit or through a mail slot in the door or leaving it at the place where mail is ordinarily delivered to the member
- mailing it to the last known address where the member lives or works.

(b) When mailed

Documents that are mailed to a member are considered delivered or served on the fifth day after the day of mailing.

(c) More than one member

A separate notice or other document must be given to each member involved and to any member who has left the unit, but is still involved.

17.9. Signing Schedules for Co-op

The Schedules to this By-law (including any Appendixes) can be signed on behalf of the Co-op by the manager or another staff member, any director or anyone authorized by the Residents' Council.

17.10. Minor Errors, Omissions or Irregularities

A minor error, omission or irregularity will not affect any decision made by the Residents' Council and/or members as stated in the Co-operative Corporations Act.

17.11. Starting Date for this By-law

This By-law will go into effect on the date when it is confirmed by the membership.

Membership terms:

1. The Co-op gives you the right to occupy a unit.
2. The main terms of your occupancy rights and obligations are contained in the Occupancy By-law. The remaining Co-op by-laws also contain rights and obligations of members. You agree to obey all Co-op by-laws and decisions made by the board and Co-op members.
3. Under the Co-operative Corporations Act and the Co-op's by-laws, the Co-op can change the terms of membership and occupancy. You are entitled to a notice of all general meetings where members will decide on these changes. You are also entitled to attend and vote at these meetings. You will be bound by these changes even if you do not agree with them.
4. If there is a conflict between the Co-op's by-laws and this Agreement, the Co-op's by-laws have priority.

Before signing this Agreement, you are responsible for reading and understanding it. You are also entitled to a copy of all the Co-op's by-laws. You are entitled to ask any questions and to have them answered.

The attached Appendixes are part of this agreement. Any updated Appendixes will be part of this Agreement.

Basic rules:

1. This document is an agreement between the Co-op and each member and between the Co-op and each non-member occupant who signs it. They are called the “household” in this document.
2. Each member of the household agrees to comply with the rules and obligations in this document and the applicable parts of the Co-op’s Occupancy Agreement and by-laws. Words used in this document have the same meaning as in the Co-op’s Occupancy By-law.
3. This document states some of the rules and obligations for households that receive a housing charge subsidy. It does not state all of them. Government requirements and Co-op by-laws have many other rules and obligations that apply. These rules can change. These rules can govern over this document.
4. Households who receive housing charge subsidy cannot sub-let their unit. Members are responsible for finding out about all the rules and obligations that apply to them and any changes in them. The Co-op can give people information and answer questions about these rules and obligations.
5. The Co-op members decide on the housing charges as stated in the Occupancy By-law. The Co-op will reduce the household’s housing charges by the amount of the housing charge subsidy that is allocated to the household. This amount is determined under government requirements or the Co-op’s Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if it has one, or other Co-op by-laws or a combination of these.

Giving information:

6. Each of the members of the household must truthfully and completely give the Co-op all information that is relevant to housing charge subsidy and must ensure that that information is accurate and complete at all times. The household shall provide annually a signed declaration of its Gross Household Income and agree that the Geared-to-Income Housing Charge payable to the Co-op will be increased or decreased in accordance with income and assets and that retroactive adjustments will be made if income is misrepresented or not reported.
7. An Assisted Unit may be occupied only by the Assisted Household named in the Occupancy Agreement.
8. Assisted Households may be offered a unit of a more appropriate size if the Household's composition changes and a unit of a more appropriate size is available. The determination of whether or what units are offered is at the sole discretion and responsibility of the Co-op. If the Assisted Household refuses to move, it will no longer be eligible to receive the Housing Charge Assistance related to the unit it is currently occupying.
9. Once a year the household will have to update the record of all persons in the household and their incomes. The household will have to give proof of current household income and the income for the previous year. This must include the income of any long-term guests and may have to include the income of casual guests.
10. The household must report the following changes to the Co-op within ten days after they happen:
  - any change in any relevant document previously provided
  - any change in income
  - any change in assets
  - any change in the source of income for any member of the household
  - any change in household composition
  - any change in immigration status if that is a government requirement.
9. The Co-op will investigate the household's financial situation when it decides on the amount of housing charge subsidy and may do so at other times. All members of the household must give the Co-op any information it requests for this investigation. This includes household income, household composition and any other relevant information. Each member of the household is responsible to make sure that all persons in the household also give all requested information to the Co-op.
  - If asked, households must give complete proof and details about the above. This request can include originals or copies of any documents and sworn statements from everyone involved.

Ending subsidy:

- 10. Housing charge subsidy ends when the household has not occupied a unit in the Co-op for more than six weeks. This period of time will be changed to meet any applicable government requirements. This applies whether or not the absence is permitted under Co- op by-laws.
- 11. Housing charge subsidy can be ended if any member of the household does not give any information or proof that the Co-op asks for. Housing charge subsidy ends if a member or anyone in the household breaks any term of the Housing Charge Subsidy By-law, if the Co-op has one, or government requirements, or this Appendix or any other rules that apply.
- 12. Households that are overhoused must follow the applicable rules in the Co-op by-laws and government requirements. Overhousing will be determined according to occupancy standards under Co-op by-laws or government requirements.
- 13. If the household ever receives more subsidy than it should have because of a breach of Co-op by-laws or government requirements or this Appendix or for other reasons, each household member must pay back the excess.

Each of the undersigned agrees that the Co-op can receive, through its employees or agents, credit information from any credit agency or other source. All persons in the member’s household must sign a separate authorization for a credit check if requested by the Co-op.

Each of the undersigned agrees that personal information that the Co-op receives during its investigations will be kept confidential, but it may be shared as stated in government requirements.

4. Households that occupy a special needs unit are responsible for finding out about all the rules and obligations that apply to them and any changes in them. The Co-op can give people information and answer questions about these rules and obligations.
5. No one may occupy the Unit except people who were members of the household at the time the Occupancy Agreement was signed and any additional people authorized by the Co-op under its by-laws.

Updating information:

6. Each of the members of the household must truthfully and completely give the Co-op all information that is relevant to occupying a special needs unit and must ensure that that information is accurate and complete at all times.
7. Periodically the household will have to update the record of all persons in the household. The household will have to give proof of continuing eligibility for special needs housing.
8. The household must report the following changes to the Co-op within ten days after they happen:
  - any change in any relevant document previously provided
  - any change in household composition
  - any change that would affect continuing eligibility for special needs housing.
9. All members of the household must give any information that the Co-op requests for any investigation of continuing eligibility for special needs housing. Each member of the household is responsible to make sure that all persons in the household also give all requested information to the Co-op.
  - If asked, households must give complete proof and details about the above. This request can include originals or copies of any documents and sworn statements from everyone involved.

Losing eligibility:

10. Households can lose their eligibility for special needs housing if they break any of the rules that apply – whether or not the rules are stated in this document.
11. Households can also lose their eligibility for special needs housing without breaking any rules. This can happen for reasons like:
  - The household lives in a special needs-modified unit and no longer has any members that require accessibility modifications.
  - The household lives in a special needs-support services unit and no longer has any members who require the support services.

Each of the undersigned agree that the Co-op can receive, through its employees or agents, credit information from any credit agency or other source. All persons in the member's household must sign a separate authorization for a credit check if requested by the Co-op.

Each of the undersigned agrees that personal information that the Co-op receives during its investigations will be kept confidential, but it may be shared as stated in government requirements.

Start date: _____

End date: _____

Terms of agreement:

1. The Co-op agrees that the long-term guest can live in the member's unit as a part of the member's household starting on the Start Date stated in this agreement. If a date is filled in for the End Date, the long-term guest agrees to leave the member's unit on or before the End Date. The long-term guest must have written permission from the Co-op and the member to stay longer.
2. The member is still responsible to the Co-op for all housing charges and all the member's obligations to the Co-op.
3. The long-term guest agrees not to break any of the terms of the member's Occupancy Agreement or any Co-op by-laws.
4. The long-term guest acknowledges that the Co-op only allows members and their households to occupy Co-op units. The long-term guest acknowledges that being a long-term guest does not give the member a right to the unit or any other unit or position on the Co-op's internal or external waiting lists.
5. The long-term guest agrees to leave the member's unit if the member or the Co-op requests it. The long-term guest will be entitled to written notice to leave the unit.
6. The long-term guest must immediately leave the unit when the member's occupancy rights end.
7. The long-term guest acknowledges that the unit is a member unit under the Co-operative Corporations Act and that the long-term guest is not a tenant under the Residential Tenancies Act.

8. The member and the long-term guest acknowledge and understand that the long-term guest cannot pay anything to the member, such as key money, and the only payment permitted is a fair share of the housing charges. Any other payment is against the law.
9. The long-term guest agrees that the Co-op, through its employees or agents, can receive credit information about the long-term guest from any credit agency or other source.

_____

Names of sub-occupants: _____
_____

Unit address: _____
_____

Start date: _____

End date: _____

Contact information for member: _____
_____

Current monthly housing charges: $ _____

Terms of agreement:

1. The Co-op agrees that the sub-occupant can live in the member's unit from the Start Date to the End Date stated in this agreement and in any case no longer than one year. The sub-occupant agrees to leave the member's unit on or before the End Date. The sub-occupant must have written permission from the Co-op and the member to stay longer.
2. If the End Date in this agreement is blank or indefinite the sub-occupant can live in the member's unit on a monthly basis starting on the Start Date. The member or the sub-occupant can end this agreement on sixty days' written notice. The notice period must end on the last day of a month.
3. The member is still responsible to the Co-op for all the member's obligations to the Co-op.
4. The sub-occupant agrees not to break any of the terms of the member's Occupancy Agreement or any Co-op by-laws.
5. The sub-occupant agrees to pay all housing charges and to carry out all the obligations that the member has to the Co-op. The current monthly housing charges are stated above and must be paid directly to the Co-op. The monthly housing charges may change during the sub-occupancy.

6. The member agrees that the member is still legally responsible for housing charges if the sub-occupant does not pay them.
7. The member agrees that all legally required notices to the member may be delivered or served at or to the unit in compliance with Co-op by-laws and the Co-operative Corporations Act.
  - (a) The sub-occupant agrees to contact the member immediately on receipt of any notice from the Co-op.
  - (b) The Co-op may contact the member as stated in the contact information in this agreement and may send the member a copy of a notice. The Co-op does not have to do this. This includes important documents, such as a Notice to Appear. If the Co-op does contact the member, the time of service of the notice or document will be when it was delivered or served at or to the unit or the sub-occupant.
8. The sub-occupant acknowledges that the Co-op allows only members and their households to occupy Co-op units, except for a temporary sub-occupancy. The sub-occupant's right to live in the member's unit ends when the member's occupancy rights end. This agreement does not give the sub-occupant a right to the unit or any other unit in the Co-op or position on the Co-op's internal or external waiting lists.
9. The Co-op can end the sub-occupant's rights to the unit when it wishes to do so. The sub-occupant will be entitled to thirty days' notice to leave the unit. The Co-op can do this if the member ends Co-op membership or the Co-op is evicting the member or for other reasons that the Co-op decides.
10. The member and the sub-occupant must update the Co-op in writing within five days of any change in the member's contact information.
11. The sub-occupant acknowledges that the unit is a member unit under the Co-operative Corporations Act and that the sub-occupant is not a tenant under the Residential Tenancies Act.
12. The member and the sub-occupant acknowledge and understand that the sub-occupant cannot pay anything to the member, such as key money, and the only payment permitted is the housing charges. Any other payment is against the law.

13. The sub-occupant agrees that the Co-op, through its employees or agents, can receive credit information about the sub-occupant from any credit agency or other source.

Schedule D. Notice to Appear for Arrears

Bain Apartments Co-operative Incorporated

To members: _____
_____

Address of member unit: _____
_____

The Residents' Council is going to consider ending your membership and occupancy rights and evicting you.

The grounds for this are that you have failed to pay housing charges to the Co-operative. The amount owing is stated in this Notice. This is grounds for eviction under section 11.1 (Eviction) of the Occupancy By-law.

The meeting to consider this will be in the place and at the time stated in this Notice. You do not have to arrive before the arrival time stated in this Notice.

The proposed date for ending your membership and occupancy rights is stated in this Notice. The board may set a later date.

You may appear and speak at the meeting. You may present written material. You may have a lawyer or other representative speak for you.

You do not have to vacate the unit, but after your membership and occupancy rights are ended, the Co-operative may get possession of the unit by obtaining an order of the Landlord and Tenant Board terminating your occupancy and evicting you under Part V.1 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

The Residents' Council is going to consider ending your membership and occupancy rights and evicting you.

The Residents' Council is going to consider whether you have broken the Co-operative's by-laws and, if so, whether you should be evicted. The grounds for this are stated in this Notice.

The meeting to consider this will be in the place and at the time stated in this Notice. You do not have to arrive before the arrival time stated in this Notice.

The proposed date for ending your membership and occupancy rights is stated in this Notice. The board may set a later date.

You may appear and speak at the meeting. You may present written material. You may have a lawyer or other representative speak for you.

You do not have to vacate your unit, but after your membership and occupancy rights are ended, the Co-operative may get possession of the unit by obtaining an order of the Landlord and Tenant Board terminating your occupancy and evicting you under Part V.1 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 if it applies, or else by obtaining a writ of possession from the court.

You may appeal the board decision to a general meeting of the members.

Bain Apartments Co-operative Incorporated

Members: _____
_____

Address of member unit: _____
_____

Note: If there is more than one member, the word "member" in this Decision refers to all members.

Background:

The Co-operative gave the member a Notice to Appear as required by the Co-operative Corporations Act and the by-laws.

Decision:

The occupancy rights of the member in the unit are ended on the date stated in this decision. The membership of the member in the Co-operative is ended on the same date.

Reasons:

The Residents' Council made its decision because the member owed housing charges to the Co-op on the date of the meeting. This is grounds for eviction under section 11.1 (Eviction) of the Occupancy By-law.

Attachment A: Summary of Time Requirements and Examples

In case of conflict the Co-operative Corporations Act and the By-law, the Act will govern over Attachment A.

Business day

3.3(a) Housing charges are due before noon on first business day of the month.

Example: September 1, 2013 is a Sunday.

Monday, September 2, 2013 is a public holiday—Labour Day.

Housing charges are due on Tuesday, September 3, 2013—the first business day in September.

Budget

4.3 Must be delivered at least five days before the budget meeting.

Example: Budget meeting is June 16, 2014.

Last day to deliver a copy of the budget is June 11, 2014.

Changed housing charges

4.4 Begin on the first day of the third month after the members decide on the change.

Example: Budget meeting is June 16, 2014 and members approve a change.

July is the first month after the decision.

August is the second month after the decision.

Therefore, housing charge change takes effect on September 1, 2014. Changed housing charges apply for September.

Notice of entry

5.2(b) 48 hours notice is required. A time range can be given (5.2(d)).

Example: Plumber to arrive at 8:00 a.m. on Monday, June 16, 2014 to work on several units; will be there for a week.

Notice must be given by 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 14, 2014. Notice can cover the whole week to June 20, 2014.

Showing unit

5.2(c) 24 hours notice is required. A time range can be given.

Example: Member has withdrawn from Co-op effective June 30, 2014.
Potential new member to look at the unit at 7:00 p.m. June 16, 2014.
Notice must be given by 7:00 p.m. on June 15, 2014.

Year

6.2 Can't be away from unit more than 3 months in a year without board approval.

Example: Member will be away November and December 2014 and January and February 2015.
“Year” means a consecutive twelve-month period, not a calendar year. (See Definitions paragraph 1.6(j)).
Therefore, member can't be away without board approval.

Change in household size

9.5 Notice must be given by member to Co-op within 10 days.

Example: Child gets married on May 14, 2014 and leaves home permanently.
Last day for notice to Co-op is May 24, 2014.

Withdrawing from Co-op

10.2 (b) At least 60 days' written notice required ending on last day of month.

Example: Member wants to withdraw from Co-op effective June 30, 2014.
Notice must be delivered to Co-op office on or before May 1, 2014.
— 30 days in May (not counting May 1).
— 30 days in June (counting June 30).
— Total 60

Example: Member wants to withdraw from Co-op effective August 31, 2014.
Notice must be delivered to Co-op office on or before July 2, 2014.
— 29 days in July (not counting July 2).
— 31 days in August (count August 31).
— Total 60

10.2 (c) Special counting rules for February and March.

Example: Member wants to withdraw from Co-op effective February 28, 2014 (or 29th in a leap year).

Notice must be delivered to Co-op office on or before January 1, 2014.

Example: Member wants to withdraw from Co-op effective March 31, 2014.

Notice must be delivered to Co-op office on or before February 1, 2014.

Death of a member

10.4 (b) Unit rights and responsibilities end at the end of the month after the month of death.

Example: Member dies on March 15, 2014.

Month after March is April.

Rights and responsibilities end on April 30, 2014.

Notice to Appear for arrears

11.2(c) Notice to Appear to be given by manager by noon on fifth business day of the month.

Example: May 1, 2014 is a Thursday.

Housing charges are due on May 1, 2014.

May 3 and 4 are Saturday and Sunday.

Fifth business day is Wednesday, May 7, 2014.

Delivery of Notice to Appear to member

11.7(a) or 12.2(a) At least 10 days before board meeting.

Example: Board meeting is Monday, June 16, 2014.

Last day to give notice to member is June 6, 2014.

Proposed termination date in Notice to Appear

11.7(b) or 12.2(d) 10 days after board meeting.

Example: Board meeting is Monday, June 16, 2014.

Day to put in notice is Thursday, June 26, 2014.

Proposed termination date in Notice to Appear if there is right of appeal

12.2(d) 20 days after board meeting.

Example: Board meeting is Monday, June 16, 2014.

Day to put in notice is Sunday, July 6, 2014. (It can be a non-business day.)

Delivery of notice of board eviction decision to member.

13.1(e) Within 10 days after board meeting.

Example: Board meeting is Monday, June 16, 2014.

Last day to deliver to member is Thursday, June 26, 2014.

Member breaks performance agreement or condition in eviction decision.

14.5(a) and (b) Member must be given at least 10 days' notice of board decision to proceed with the eviction.

Example: Board meeting is Monday, June 16, 2014.

Notice is given to member on Tuesday, June 17, 2014.

First day to take legal action or other steps is Friday, June 27, 2014.

Appeal to membership

15.2(a) Member must give written notice to office within seven days after notice of eviction decision was given.

Example: Notice of eviction decision given on Monday, June 16, 2014.

Last day to deliver appeal notice is Monday, June 23, 2014.

15.2(b) Members' meeting must be at least 14 days after appeal notice received.

Example: Notice of appeal received on Monday, June 23, 2014.

Earliest day for members' meeting is Monday, July 7, 2014.

15.4(g) If appeal not successful, termination date is second day after meeting (unless the membership changes it).

Example: Members' meeting is Tuesday, July 8, 2014.

Termination date is Thursday, July 10, 2014.
