The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall cause a note of such meeting, to be mailed to all members at their addresses as they appear on the membership roster at least two (2) weeks before the scheduled date of such meeting and shall include who called said meeting and its purpose. No other business but that specified in the notice may be transacted at such meeting without the unanimous consent of all present at such meeting.

CHAPTER IV: THE MONARCHS OF THE IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN COURT OF ALL CONNECTICUT, INC.

Section 4.1 Definition:

(a) A Monarch of the Corporation ("Monarch") is an individual elected to such position with the limitations, privileges and responsibilities described in this chapter and in Policies and Procedures.

Section 4.2 Election of Monarchs

(A) The election of the monarchs occurs three (3) months prior to the coronation event.

(B) The Election of Monarch may be held either publicly or privately.

(I). Election of Monarchs, when to be voted upon solely by the General membership, shall be voted upon only by individuals who have been General Members for at least one year at a time of election and meet the requirements of Chapter 3.3.

(II) No Monarchical Candidate may offer incentives, either tangible or intangible, to either members of the public or Members of the Corporation. Items disallowed or approved for campaign use are defined in the Policies and Procedures.

(C) The Monarch Candidate Selection Committee will consist of:

The College of Monarchs as described in Addendum-(A), A member of the Board of Directors who is not a past or current reigning monarch, and a member of the general membership who is not a past or current reigning monarch or a current member of the Board of Directors and who has been a member of the corporation for at least three years and is eligible to vote.

(I) The Board of Directors and the General Membership positions of the Monarch Candidate Selection Committee will be elected at the General Membership meeting prior to the application due date. If there is no qualifying member from the Board of Directors or the general membership, those positions will remain vacant.

(II) All members of the Monarch Candidate Selection Committee will participate in the interview and approval of Monarchical candidates.

(D) The President of the College shall oversee all aspects of the Monarch Election Process, including the counting of ballots as well as chair the Monarch Candidate Selection Committee.

(E) Individuals wishing to become candidates for the Election of Monarchs ("Potential Monarchical Candidates") must fulfill the following general criteria in these Bylaws. Failure to comply with any of the following, will result in disqualification:

(I) General Members may not disclose publicly their intent to become Potential Monarchical Candidates.

(II) Potential Monarchical Candidates must fill out the Application form in its entirety and return it to the President of the College of Monarchs by the due date stated on the application letter.

(F) After the President of the College of Monarchs has received all of the Application packets, by the stated due date, the Candidate Selection Committee will then review all the applications and determine if all criteria in both these Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures Manual has been met as well as carefully consider the information provided.

(I) The Monarch Candidate Selection Committee will then interview each applicant privately at a time to be determined by the college.

(II) The College of Monarchs will then, at the next General Membership meeting, provide the General Membership with the names of the individuals approved by the Committee to become candidates in the election of Monarchs.

(G) A sole candidate must receive 50% +1 of the vote in order to win the election. This supersedes state law.

(H) The Corporation maintains three lineages, male, female and gender neutral. In any election year only two of the three lineages can have a candidate named Monarch. Should all three lineages have candidates running, the top candidate vote recipient (meeting the 4.2(G) minimum vote count requirement) of each lineage will be compared, and the two lineage candidates with the highest vote counts of the three will be named Monarchs.

(I) Prior to counting of ballots at the time of election, one ballot will be held aside at random and reserved in case it is needed in order to break a tie.

Section 4.3 Limitations.

(A) There will be no more than two (2) Reigning Monarchs at one time ("Reigning Monarch" being defined as the individual elected to represent the Corporation as the "Crowned Head of State" for the duration of approximately one (1) year beginning on Coronation).
