Finley Group advises underperforming companies beginning to experience earnings erosion and strains on working capital. These services often include cash flow management, creditor forbearance negotiations, debt repayment plans, non-core asset divestitures, cost rationalization, and capital structure analysis. We interpret our findings quickly and present a clear set of objectives, create actionable plans, and most importantly, we can assist your management team with delivering profitable results.

Why? It is hard to disagree that today's global business environment continues to bring additional competition into the local marketplace on a daily basis, adding increased pressure on profits and cash flow. Volatile credit markets with no relief in sight and financial institutions dealing with their own capital issues continue to limit credit availability to organizations experiencing financial stress. These issues, among others, are forcing companies to de-lever their capital structure, improve operations, rethink their business model, shed non-core assets and find alternative methods to generate working capital liquidity. These external influences, together with normal business cycle trends and technological advancements, will cause more companies to experience operational and financial stress that will require third party assistance.

FINLEY makes the difference

The advisors you choose to assist your team is vital. Finley Group professionals bring valuable advice, industry recognized certifications, and best practices into every situation across many industries and for over 30 years.

Our professionals have held senior operational and financial roles in addition to working as trusted advisors and understand the levels to navigate underperforming businesses. Our professionals can help you define clear objectives, create actionable plans and deliver results.

Finley Group - Proven Experience

Select Engagements

- ❖ Bost Distributing– FG professional was hired as the interim CEO on behalf of the court appointed receiver of a food processing facility in North Carolina. Revenues had fallen more than 40% from its peak, to $6.5 million and an EBITDA loss of more than $200,000. At the onset of the turnaround, Bost had a mountain of aging payables, weary vendors, exhausted employees, a strained customer reputation and had not serviced any secured debt in over a year.
 - FG’s initiatives resulted in:
 - ✓ Reduction of 2% in COGS and 11% expense reduction – ceased inappropriate personal expenditures, eliminated excess spending.
 - ✓ Increased efficiency through increasing daily production yield but 20%
 - ✓ End result is 49 jobs saved, revenue increased to $8M and EBITDA increased 271% to $379K (including the cost of turnaround professionals and legal expenses) during 12 months of cash strapped, legally constrained, turnaround operations.

- ❖ Royal Cake Company – FG was retained as the financial advisor for a producer and distributor of more than 25 different varieties of snacks and treats under a range of private and branded labels. FG guided the Debtor through a successful Chapter 11 proceeding where the Court confirmed a Plan of Reorganization that awarded the unsecured creditors a recovery in excess of 85%. Initiatives lead during the engagement included analyzing the Company’s business plan (including developing cash flow controls and projections) and affecting a successful sale of the business as a going concern to Flowers Bakery in excess of the prepetition debt.
 - FG’s initiatives resulted in:
 - ✓ Sale of the business as a going concern
 - ✓ Recovery to the unsecured creditors in excess of 85%
 - ✓ Cash flow management controls
 - ✓ Improved operating performance yielding stronger cash flow performance

Professional Background

Matthew Smith Managing Director

Matt specializes in corporate turnarounds and restructuring with an emphasis on financial, operational and management issues. Since joining the firm in 2002, he has worked for over 100 clients in a wide variety of industries including manufacturing, distribution, retail, agriculture, financial services, furniture, textiles, golf & resort operations and motorsports.

Matt has provided both advisory services and taken interim-management positions with his clients, which have resulted in maximizing value for all stakeholders. Matt has served his clients as an Interim CEO, CFO and CRO, as well as acting in a fiduciary role in Court appointed engagements. On multiple occasions, he has successfully negotiated financing arrangements with secured and unsecured lenders. Additionally, Matt has lead divestiture and sale efforts of non-core assets, as well as entire businesses.

Matt's extensive experience includes:

- Matt was named the Interim Chief Executive Officer for Stanley Furniture, a 90 year-old publicly traded (STLY) company headquartered in High Point, NC. Matt led the business to the completion of a sale of the Company to an investment group based in Vietnam. Matt was instrumental in the completion of the Asset Based Financing that helped provide the funding to complete the sale transaction. Matt was credited with actively managing working capital through a very tight liquidity situation.
- Matt was appointed as Chapter 11 Operating Bankruptcy Trustee for BK Racing, LLC, a NASCAR Race Team operating at the series top cup level. Matt successfully navigated a challenging situation to manage liquidity and compete on the track every weekend. Many doubted that someone without prior knowledge of the industry could successfully run a race team, but Matt was instrumental in bringing credibility back to the organization, and operated the team for most of the 2019 season prior to selling the team to another NASCAR owner.

Matt enjoys business challenges where he can bring creativity to solve important business issues and problems. He has become a trusted advisor and resource who is called upon when a business issue is complex, but important enough that it needs to be done the right way.

Matt is one of the few Turnaround Professionals to hold both the Certified Turnaround Professional (CTP) and Certified Insolvency and Restructuring Advisor (CIRA) designations. Matt is also a certified mediator in North Carolina.

Matt has been asked to speak to a number of groups including the Turnaround Management Association and Bankruptcy Conferences for the Eastern District of North Carolina and the NC Bankruptcy Institute.

Blake Hauk Managing Director

Blake has a rich, diversified financial history spanning over 20 years. Blake has served in numerous roles including investigation, lending and real estate management in the banking industry. While Blake's experience includes a wide variety of industries, his primary areas of expertise are in maximizing asset recoveries and real estate.

Prior to joining the Finley Group, Blake was a Senior Vice President for First Horizon Bank National Association with principal activities in commercial lending, investigation, special assets and corporate real estate.

Blake's extensive experience in the banking industry includes:

- Rehabilitating two large real estate developments that required completion of infrastructure, reformation of title, creation of a rental management company, and ultimately selling of assets. This undertaking involved multiple litigation matters, obtaining local and state approvals for completion, bidding of multi-million dollar contracts, and then overseeing of the build out phase. Successful litigation and negotiations resulted in judgement and settlement which recouped millions of lost dollars to several financial institutions.
- Responsible for the oversight of maximizing recovery of one of the top five furniture and carpet wholesaler/retailers in the Southeast.
- Managed the unwind and recovery of multiple out of trust automotive dealerships involving six major flags.
- Served as lead investigator on several large, white-collar crime matters involving the financial services industry.
- Worked with Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of the Inspector General and Naval Criminal Investigation Division to prosecute one of the first undercover operations involving mortgage fraud against a financial institution, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development and the United States Navy.
- Worked a large internal affairs case involving manipulation and theft in excess of $1 million. Suspects were successfully prosecuted at the federal level and civil litigation was utilized to recover assets.

Blake has spoken to a Turnaround Management Association event on the topic of commercial real estate. He has also served as an adjunct instructor for Tennessee Law Enforcement Academy.

N. Roderick McGeachy, III Senior Director

Rod brings nearly 30 years of global experience in consumer goods, retail, manufacturing, chemicals and energy. He has led both profitable growth strategies for healthy, multi-billion dollar brands as well as crisis management/turnaround efforts for medium sized firms.

Rod's experience includes leading turnaround efforts while serving as Chairman/CEO and divisional President of two publicly traded consumer goods firms. In both instances, he worked with all stakeholder groups to create and preserve value by delivering significant EBITDA improvement using a mix of profitable growth and cost cutting initiatives. In addition, he dramatically reduced working capital and divested underperforming businesses, utilizing the resultant cash flows to renegotiate credit facilities and acquire/integrate multiple companies. Most recently, Rod led an entrepreneurial, women's specialty retailer develop an infrastructure that could be scaled for growth.

Previously, Rod also held roles in multiple strategy, general management and marketing roles for VF Corporation, Russell Corporation and Hanes Brands. He was also a Manager in Accenture's Corporate Strategy practice, where he was responsible for leading engagement teams and client deliverables.

Rod's expertise includes:

- Growth strategy development
- Business turnarounds and crisis management
- Financial/Cash management and modeling
- Marketing science
- Product lifecycle management (PLM)
- Inventory management
- Sourcing

David Richeson Senior Director

Dave has extensive experience in leading, restructuring and turning around distressed businesses. Having served in roles as President & Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Chief Restructuring Officer (CRO) and Executive Vice President, Dave brings a breadth of knowledge and expertise to advise and support businesses in a variety of industries. Dave's background also includes extensive experience in operations, crisis management and the automotive supply base.

Dave's experience includes:

- Chief Restructuring Officer for a leading manufacturer of secure storage products. Dave provided advice to the company as the turnaround plan was developed and provided hands on leadership to improve financial tracking and cash flow management to meet the needs of the Company's Senior Secured Lender. Dave developed strategic options for the Board that were used to determine the direction of the company. The result was a sale of the senior secured debt to an investor which maximized lender recovery and the company was later restructured utilizing the bankruptcy process.
- Chief Restructuring Officer for a leading manufacturer of media storage devices. Dave prepared and presented a review of strategic options for the Board that ultimately resulted in the decision to close the business and liquidate the company's assets. Dave lead the complex liquidation process that included multiple manufacturing, warehouse, and distribution locations. The result was an orderly liquidation process that maximized the recovery for creditors.
- Chief Executive Officer of a manufacturer of machined components serving the Tier I automotive and industrial markets. Dave executed a turnaround within an agreed upon three-year time frame, achieving the company's first profits since being acquired out of bankruptcy. Additionally, the board was presented with options to achieve an exit from the investment within the target window.
- President and Chief Executive Officer of North America for a German owned Tier I manufacturer of automotive and industrial components. Dave developed and executed a turnaround plan that improved the profitability of the business by $20mm in a single year. Focusing on the customer, quality and delivery were dramatically improved, while a robust cost reduction roadmap was executed. The company was later sold to a Private Equity Sponsor, and had a highly successful exit after only 22 months.

Matthew Strecker Financial Analyst

Matt brings years of experience in financial management consulting and advising. He has been instrumental in developing, forecasting and managing budgets, reports, and financial reviews for large successful companies, including NASCAR, Formula 1 and other Motorsports Teams.

Matt's experience includes:

- Financial Management Consultant for large NASCAR Motorsports company. Matt created and managed the budget, including generating quarterly reports and year-end financial reviews, and lead R&D credit tax audits for all departments. He also worked with the Company's accounting department to create and implement more efficient financial resources and procedures in house, and developed the business plan for setting up an off-site Engineering/Research and Development Center to supplement the team's existing engineering and R&D infrastructure.
- Business Development Manager for a CNC manufacturing company. Matt identified improvements and optimized vertical integration in the manufacturing branch, as well as restructuring key performance indicators (KPI) and profitability tracking in the sales department, therefore enhancing long term profitability.
- As a Financial Consultant, Matt developed the preliminary financial model for a Motor Sports Sanctioning Body to give them a tool to facilitate and adapt to market demands and consumer trends. This financial model projected a path to cost savings in excess of 70%.

Matt is a Native French speaker (Dual French-USA Citizenship) and conversational in Spanish.
