Work description and purpose

As in previous years, TTC is required to divert a number of routes for approximately five hours during the Labour Day Parade. The parade will begin in the downtown core at Queen Street and University Avenue and run west on Queen Street and south on Dufferin Street to Exhibition Place.

Buses on the 29 Dufferin, 193 Exhibition Rocket and 47 Lansdowne routes (currently on diversion via Dufferin Street during southbound road closure of Lansdowne Avenue for City watermain work) will be part of a group of services being diverted for a five hour period. TTC bus operations will resume regular routings as soon as possible after the Labour Day Parade has cleared the affected areas.

To maintain the best possible transit service during projects like this, buses are diverted on streets closest to the original route for the duration of the road closure/event. With the current road closure on Lansdowne Avenue the following unavoidable bus diversion routings will be used.
