

Each member pays $21 per year to support the international organization.

What does the International Questers organization do?

- ❖ Provides grant money to chapters to preserve and restore artifacts, existing memorial, historic buildings, and landmarks. These funds total about $100,000 every two years. In 2012, Missouri chapters received $20,000 in grant money.
- ❖ Provides the Winterthur fellowship ($15,000 each year) and a scholarship to Columbia ($15,000 each year) to students.
- ❖ Publishes a quarterly newsletter to all members and maintains a web site.
- ❖ Maintains a headquarters and staff in a historic building in Philadelphia. (See back of pamphlet.)
- ❖ Pays officers' expenses and general expenses, including the travel of the International President, who is obligated to visit every chartered state sometime during her or his 2-year term.
- ❖ Holds an annual convention.

Web site: www.Questers1944.org

Each member pays $7 per year to support the state organization.

What does the Missouri State Questers organization do?

- ❖ Provides grant money to chapters for preservation and restoration. In 2011, almost $3000 was awarded to chapters for their projects. Since 1982, grants totaling over $250,000 have been awarded by Missouri State Questers.
- ❖ Publishes a semi-annual newsletter to members and maintains a web site.
- ❖ Pays officers' expenses and expenses of the state president to attend the international convention.
- ❖ Holds spring and fall meetings.

Web site:

www.MissouriStateQuesters.org

Lewis & Clark
Discovery Expedition

Each member pays a small amount that varies by chapter to support the individual chapter to which the Quester belongs.

What does a Missouri State Questers chapter do?

- ❖ Provides financial and other assistance to support a project, which is typically a historic building or site.
- ❖ Holds monthly meetings during which members meet to learn about history or take a field trip to a historical building or site.
- ❖ Some chapters provide docents or do other volunteer work at their project's site.

The State President's Projects have been the Lewis & Clark Discovery Expedition, which consists of 200 re-enactors teaching heritage through living history, and the display of the Women's Suffrage Exhibit in state libraries.

Other historical projects supported by Missouri Questers include the following: Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art, Augusta Museum, Bingham-Waggoner Estate, Chatillon De Menil Mansion, Conway House, Eugene Field Museum, Frenchtown Heritage Museum, Governor Fletcher Foundation, Hawken House, Hanley House, Military Heritage Museum, Missouri Theater, Mudd's Grove, Patee House Museum, Pony Express Museum, Robidoux Row Museum, Stollings House at Shoal Creek Living History Museum, Sutter-Myer Farmhouse, and Wyeth Tootle Mansion.