LA STORIA DI' CESARE

Bar Centrale opened in the town square of Carini, Italy in 1959, by Pietro Evola, Cesare Evola's father. In 1961 Lido Azzurro opened, seating 800 patrons in a casual yet many times formal atmosphere, specializing in weddings and receptions of all kinds. It was there that Cesare Evola, aged nine, entered the restaurant business. Cesare's first job was to sit outside of the kitchen door and record all the food going out of the kitchen and manually add the tickets for the final bill. At the age of ten Cesare began helping his father make pizzas, consequently, at the age of ten his own son, Antonio followed in those footsteps as well, only here in America. In Italy, many restaurants still operate this way, they still hand roll the dough and hand toss the pizza as past generations did, and the Evola's promise to always hand roll the dough and hand toss their pizzas. Times have changed but we still make our pizzas as we did in 1961; proof that when you find a true classic it really is priceless.

This menu is dedicated to Cesare, our founder, and the staff of Cesare's and Antonio's Ristorantes. Their continual hard work, dedication, and loyalty are extremely uncommon in this business of constant change. "We are truly blessed with some of the hardest working and dedicated people to be found. The majority of our kitchen staff and head chefs have been with us over a decade, and some over two decades; without them the execution of this menu would not exist

Grazie e Buon Appetito, La Famiglia Evola
