

Day 1: Harmony, Hope and the Holy Spirit

- Define justification, sanctification, and glorification in your own words.
- Read Romans 15:1-7. What do these verses say about harmony? What are some practical ways you can take these teachings to heart as you accept other believers who have different opinions than you do? (page 170)
- Read Romans 15:13. What power does God say will help us abound in hope? How have you experienced this power?

Day 2: Godly Confidence

- Can you describe a time in your life when you lacked confidence? (page 173)
- Read Romans 15:14-22. How can we know the difference between prideful ambition and godly goals as we seek to live confidently for Christ? (page 173)

Day 3: Travel Plans and Prayers

- What are some plans you are making for your next week, month, and year? (pages 180-181) How do these plans show your priorities in serving God?
- Read Romans 15:30-33. What were some of the specific things Paul asked the church at Rome to pray for Him? (page 181).
- From today's study, what takeaways do you have when it comes to making plans and allowing the Lord to direct your steps?

Day 4: Spiritual Friends

- Read Romans 16:1-16. What were some of the personal comments Paul made to his spiritual friends in Rome that stood out to you? (page 183)
- Share one of the people you wrote in the various categories of friends and mentors in your life who are similar to those Paul listed. (page 184) How is your life different, your faith stronger, or your service more dependable because of them?

Day 5: Victory

- Read Romans 16:17-20. How did you summarize Paul's final appeal and encouragement to the church? (page 187)
- Read Romans 16:20. Whom does Paul say will be crushed? (page 188) How does this verse encourage you? (page 189)
- As you reflect on our study of Romans, what has stood out to you? What did you star on the summary chart? (pages 190-195)
