A WORD FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends,

Epiphany often gets lost in the shuffle of Christmas and the New Year. It celebrates the three wise men (literally, magi – astrologers, not kings) who came to visit the baby Jesus, at first glance not a central event in the Gospel, even though it is the subject of a beloved carol. Yet, as well known as it is, only Matthew (Matthew 2:1-15) tells us of this event and that alone is astonishing when we consider the backdrop of this little visit.

Matthew is probably the most “Jewish” of the Gospels, in its content, vocabulary and even in its structure. But it is Matthew who wants us to see that, right from the moment of Jesus’ birth, He is for all the nations, not just for Israel. Of course, all the Gospels make this point in varying ways, but it is Matthew who draws it out so vividly at Jesus’ birth with the visit, and worship, of these magi from a foreign land.

The celebration of Epiphany is really a celebration of Jesus revealed to all nations, and given for all nations. And that includes us. When we celebrate Epiphany, we celebrate the gift of Jesus to all people, and to us!

With that, let me encourage your participation in our annual Epiphany Celebration on Sunday, January 6 at 7 p.m. Other area Episcopal Churches will also be participating. Fr. Garry Edwards, Rector of St. Sebastians, Melbourne Beach, will be our preacher and Fr. Dee Bright, the new Rector of the Church of Our Savior, Palm Bay, will be our celebrant, along with mass choir from several area churches.

A second event I want to draw your attention to is our Diocesan Revival coming on Friday, Feb. 1 in Orlando. There is a large ad about this elsewhere in this “Good News” with all the details, but I’d like to reflect for a moment on the theme for the Revival: “Keep saying ‘Yes’ to Jesus!” I have no special insight on what Presiding Bishop Michael Curry might say about this, but I can say something about what it brings up for me.

Being a follower of Jesus is not a “once and done” proposition. You don’t get your card punched at Baptism, then stick it in your wallet or your safety deposit box, until needed at your death. That would be like thinking that a marriage is all done once the ceremony is over. That is only the beginning!

There are many pressures in our society that draw us to say 'yes' to lots of other things, other priorities. Some are good and worthy. Others, not so much. Our faith calls us to keep choosing love and service over hate and selfishness; people over things; community over isolation; worship over arrogance. These choices are not always easy and need to be constantly repeated, otherwise our choices drift. Indeed, if we do not continually remind ourselves that Jesus is our choice, and the umbrella under which we make all other choices, we will drift.

The Revival promises to be a wonderful time both to be encouraged in saying 'yes' to Jesus, but also inviting people to say that first 'yes' to Jesus. Come and bring a friend!

There will be sign up sheet in the parish hall so we can get a handle on how many are planning to go and whether it makes sense to try to organize group transportation.

A happy and blessed New Year to you all!

In Christ,
The Rev. Eric Turner • Rector

Thank You!

On behalf of the clergy and staff of St. John's, I want to express our sincere appreciation for your generous "Parson's Purse" gifts, presented to us at the Christmas Luncheon. While the cash is certainly helpful at this time of year, the expression of love and support is more encouraging! Thank you!

Getting the Word Out

You can help let others know about St. John's! Follow St. John's on Facebook, then "Like" and "Share" what we post. If you're not sure how to do this, ask your grandchildren! Also, if you receive St. John's eNews (our weekly, email newsletter), you can forward that to others who might be interested.

A simple service of Morning Prayer is celebrated every Thursday morning at 8:30 a.m. in the chapel. The service is led by Tessa Scarboro and is a wonderful way to build some worship into your weekly routine.

Rector's Vacation

Fr. Eric Turner will be on vacation Monday, Jan. 7 thru Sunday, Jan. 13. Our guest preacher and celebrant on Jan. 13 will be Fr. Terry Highland, a retired priest originally from Central Florida.

Fr. Terry was an Assistant here at St. John's back in the Ned Bowersox days. He is now retired from the Diocese of Pennsylvania and has returned to Melbourne and settled at St. John's. Please give him and his wife, Mary, a warm St. John's welcome!

Coffee Hour

Coffee hour is a part of the Sunday morning experience that many of us really enjoy, but it takes volunteers to make it happen. We now have a team of five teams or individuals that will take primary responsibility on a rotating basis. However, help especially with clean up, will always be appreciated. We will publish this schedule soon, so watch the Sunday bulletins.

One note: We are always appreciative of the gifts of food that people bring, however, please understand that our intent is not to serve a meal, but just to provide some light refreshments to encourage fellowship. Bring what you would like to share, but don't always expect a Sunday brunch, and be sure to mingle while you nibble!

Epiphany Celebration

This annual favorite celebration tells of the visit of the magi ("wisemen") from other nations to the newborn Jesus, reminding us that Jesus is Savior not just for Israel but for all, not just for those who look like us, but for all! The word "epiphany" comes from the Greek meaning "showing forth," the epiphany of the light of Christ!

Men of St John's

TGIF, our men's breakfast and Bible study gathers every Friday, 8 a.m. at Memaw's, 600 E. Eau Gallie Blvd., Indian Harbor Beach. Come on out as we solve the problems of the world and dig into the Bible!

Flower Memorials

The vestry has agreed on some changes and clarifications regarding the handling of Memorial Flower gifts. These may take the form either of a memorial for someone who has passed away, or an expression of thanksgiving for some blessing of God.

First, rather than mixing the funds with the general operating budget, as has been the practice, all money donated for memorial flowers will go into a restricted fund. An added advantage is that the Flower Guild will know exactly how much they have to work with. Generally, flower gifts have significantly exceeded what has been spent on flowers (due to the hard work and creativity of our flower guild!), so at a later time, we may need to address how to handle excess funds as they begin to accumulate.

Second, we have not had any policy on what the minimum donation would be. At the suggestion of the Flower Guild, we have agreed that $30 will now be the minimum contribution for a Sunday flower memorial. Requests for specific types of flowers may require a higher donation. We believe this is at the low end of what other congregations ask.

The Christmas Poinsettia Memorials and Easter Lily Memorials will continue to have no minimum so that everyone can participate regardless of finances.

Third, on occasion we have requests for more than one flower memorial on a given Sunday. In the past, it has generally worked out that there would not be multiple memorials, and this has led to an expectation that memorials should be exclusive, although this was never stated or promised. Both the flower guild and the vestry are in agreement that flower memorials are not exclusive and there may be more than one memorial on any particular Sunday. Therefore, if a second memorial request comes in for a Sunday, this will be accepted and there will be two (or more) memorials listed in the bulletin.

It is hoped that this will lead to greater consistency and less confusion about this important way to continue to express our love for those who have gone before, or as we give thanks for God's many blessings.

Outreach Focus

For the month of January, the Outreach offering has been designated to go to the Clergy Discretionary Fund. With a very tight budget, and a struggling economy, these funds are not adequately supported through the regular parish budget. They are used to provide assistance to various people in need, for which we get calls almost daily. Please help us help others!

For the month of February, the Outreach offering will go to Pregnancy Resources. From their website (pregnancyresourcesmelbourne.com): "We are committed to empowering every client with the resources they need to make confident reproductive choices in a supportive environment. We provide information about the expected benefits and risks of all options, including all types of abortion. All of our services are offered free of charge to ensure the highest level of impartiality in our standard of care. Because we don't perform or refer for abortions, provide on-going prenatal care, and are not an adoption agency, we don't profit from any option you choose. We're here to support you."

There is a new, personal connection for St. John's. Some of you will have met Lindsey Evans, the fiancée of long time St. John's member Justin Archey, is the Executive Director of this ministry.

All offerings in the blue/lavender envelopes in the pews, or clearly marked for outreach, will go to the designated ministry for the month. Thank you for your generosity!

Lent is Coming!

Yes, it is already time to be thinking about Lent! Ash Wednesday falls on March 6 this year and we will again have our Lenten Soup Suppers beginning Wednesday, March 13.

More information will follow on the Suppers and programs, but mark your calendars and plan to be part of these great evenings!

Annual Parish Meeting

St. John's will hold its Annual Parish Meeting on Sunday, February 3, 9 – 9:50 in the Parish Hall. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

We will hear about the Diocesan Convention, the past year in the life of St. John's, plans for the year ahead, financial reports for 2018 and 2019, and we will elect three people to serve a three-year term on the vestry. We will also include a little time for questions and open discussion. Don't miss it!

Converge: Our Joint Youth Ministry

Two Episcopal Churches in the area have teamed up to launch a new and exciting ministry for middle and high school churches: Holy Apostles, Satellite Beach and St. John's now have a joint youth ministry called "Converge" and meets every Sunday during the regular school year 5:30 – 7:30 p.m., at Holy Apostles' Episcopal Church, Satellite Beach.

The first meeting for the fall will be September 23. For more information, visit cbey.weebly.com or search

"Converge Brevard Episcopal Youth"

New Vestry Class

A nominating committee, chaired by outgoing Sr. Warden Hal Martin is now recruiting new vestry potential vestry members to stand for election at the Feb. 3, 2019 Annual Parish Meeting.

We will be electing three members to a three year term. Rotating off the vestry will be: Bill Chernault, Linda Fletcher, and Julie Miller. They are not eligible for election as our bylaws require that they sit off for at least one year.

This is a critical role in the life of St. John's and we seek people who are committed to Jesus, committed to St. John's, and prepared to think and pray for the life and future health of this parish family. If you are interested in serving, or would like to suggest someone, please contact Hal Martin at 321-777-2262.

Seaside Stitchers

Now meets at St. John's. Church members are welcome to join!

The schedule varies, so please contact Shirley Muzzy (321-254-2206 or shirleymuzzy@aol.com).

Family Promise

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

Family Promise of Brevard will be hosting two events in early 2019; one in January and the other in March. On January 25th, FPOB is the hosting the Volunteer Appreciation dinner at 6 pm at St. John's the Evangelist church in Viera. ALL Family Promise volunteers are invited as FPOB guests and may bring one additional guest.

To register simply go to the FPOB website familypromiseofbrevard.org, and fill out the online registration form. There are registration forms in the parish hall which can be mailed to FPOB. If you need assistance, please see Lee Steininger. RSVP's are due by Jan. 15.

Emerald City 5k

On March 1st, FPOB will host the Emerald City 5k fundraiser at Church at Viera, 9005, N Wickham Road, Viera. There will be a kids fun run, prizes and raffles, costumes (see Sheriff Ivey in costume) and awards, and a DJ. You can enter as individuals or teams. Churches are encouraged to enter teams. Entrants can walk, crawl, or run the 5K. The idea is to have fun, get some exercise and support FPOB in it's very important goal of supporting homeless families. Registration is $25 in advance, $30 day of. And this year, Wesche Jewelers has donated an emerald valued at $2,000 and each registration includes entry into the drawing. More information is at www.RunningZone.com.

We need a volunteer to serve as St. John's coordinator and point of contact. We are looking for a big St. John's turnout!

St. John's First 2019 Family Promise Hosting

Our next hosting is February 10-17, 2019. Team Captains will be organizing their teams and materials soon and we can use any and all volunteers for this and our other two hostings this year in May and October. It takes little time, and except for setting up, little in the way of physical ability.

We especially need members to host a dinner one night a week which simply entails having dinner with the families and making them feel comfortable and welcome. We also are short overnight hosts which only entails sleeping one night in the parish hall. A metal cot and comfy mattress are provided. Other tasks include preparing dinner, setting up and tearing down, and taking a two hour hosting shift on a Saturday. We need you!

If you are interested in volunteering for this very worthwhile ministry, please contact either Lee Steininger, 321-773-7242, leestein645@aol.com or Steve Manzer, 609-410- 0758, stevemanzer2@yahoo.com.

Family Promise Growing in Brevard

St. John's can be extremely proud of our role in the tremendous success and growth of Family Promise of Brevard over the past two plus years we have served as a host church. FPOB has expanded significantly as evidenced by additional host churches and increased support from community leaders and businesses.

When we hosted our first families in June 2017, we became the thirteenth host church, a minimum number. As we begin 2019 there are 17 host churches. This means not every church hosts four times a year and that is the case for St. John's this year. We are hosting February 10-17, May 19-26 and October 13-20. Our success and that of other churches in concert with the FPOB staff has led to increased awareness of the huge problem of family homelessness in Brevard County. FPOB has promoted one temporary employee to full time status for the Help Us Move In prevention program and added three interns. When FPOB lost $65,000 in government grants for 2019, the community stepped up with terrific support for the November Golf Fundraiser netting close to $90,000. The August Annual Appeal netted $40,000. Sheriff Wayne Ivey is making two promotional videos for the Emerald City 5K fundraiser. Other local businesses are adding and increasing support. All this means more opportunity for homeless family support.

The statistics continue to impress: Over the last five years 384 people have been helped through the shelter (host) program for an average stay of 37 days versus the national average of 60-65 days. The biggest issue continues to be finding affordable housing for those families eligible to graduate from the shelter program. FPOB is working very hard on this with potential landlords.

On the down side, the County Commissioners reduced FPOB funding from 28K to 5K (roads taking priority). FPOB is preparing a one-page letter for constituents to send to their commissioner to emphasize the value of FPOB to the community. We expect each of us to have the opportunity to send a copy to their commissioner when it is available. Hopefully, the Commissioners will restore all or part of the funding for 2019 and/or consider FPOB for funding in future years.

St. John's is very blessed to be a part of this growing program. However, we are very thin on volunteers especially dinner hosts and overnight hosts. If you wish to volunteer, please see Lee Steininger or Steve Manzer. See article elsewhere for details.

School of Healing Prayer

This wonderful program began on Wednesday, October 17 and conclude February 6. Unfortunately, it is too late to join this session, but we hope to offer this again in the near future.

When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. Luke 9: 1-2

Praying and praying for one another are essential to the Christian life. Yet there is so much more that God can do in our lives through prayer! Indeed, healing prayer as a way to allow God to address and heal many burdens we carry is a tremendous gift, but there is much to learn and do if we are to take advantage of what God has given us.

Vestry Notes for November and December 2018

St. John's Vestry met on November 29 at 7 p.m. October Financials were discussed and are summarized below. Discussions were held on flower memorial policies, which are summarized elsewhere in this "Good News", as well as discussions regarding how we handle scheduling conflicts when a member funeral request conflicts with an existing commitment to an outside group for use of the facility. A restricted fund for flowers was established. A nominating committee to seek candidates for election to the vestry was formed, to be chaired by Hal Martin, Sr. Warden. An opportunity to rent St. James' House is being pursued. Offers to purchase a portion of the open land at the west end of the property are also being considered.

The December meeting was held on December 20 at 7 p.m. November financials were discussed and are summarized below. The vestry began discussions of the book "Canoeing the Mountains" by Tod Bolsinger, which considers the reality that dramatic shifts in our culture will also dramatically shift how the church operates in the future. A key observation is that the ground behind us looks nothing like the ground ahead of us and that church will need new adaptations and skills to proclaim the gospel effectively in this new context. Delegates to Diocesan Convention will be Anneke Bertsch, Ben Kendall and Lee Steinger.

Please note that the complete financial reports submitted to the vestry, along with complete minutes are now available on the church website. Visit stjohnsmlb.org, point to About and click on Vestry Documents, at the bottom of the list.

	October Budget	October Actual	November Budget	November Actual	Year to Date Actual
Revenues	$17,000	$16,051	$18,350	$14,535	$186,313
Expenses	$15,596	$13,730	$18,152	$20,500	$191,787
Net	$1,404	$2,321	$198	($5,965)	($5,663)

Office Volunteer

We have a number of regular office volunteers, but there is a need now for someone with some basic computer skills to take over the weekly bulletin preparation.

Katie Wilson has been doing this for some time, but shifting responsibilities in the parish as well as increased obligations in the care of her father make this a good time to bring a new person into this role. This will have the added advantage of giving more flexibility when someone is temporarily unavailable.

Please speak with Fr. Eric (eric@stjohnsmlb.org) or Katie (kcodlinwilson@cfl.rr.com). We will train, but some basic comfort working on a computer is needed.

Diocesan Convention

The Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida will be Friday, Feb. 1 and Saturday, Feb. 2. Presiding Bishop Michael Curry will be with us as we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the formation of the Diocese. The main event on Friday evening will be a Revival featuring Bishop Curry and lot of great music, held at First Baptist Orlando (see ad elsewhere in this issue for more information or visit cfdiocese.org/revival).

Attending from St. John's will be Anneke Bertsch, Ben Kendall, Lee Steinger and the clergy, Fr. Eric Turner and Deacon Elizabeth Murray. There will be a report from Diocesan Convention as part of our Annual Parish Meeting on Sunday, Feb. 3 at 9 a.m.

Facility Use and Funerals

Concern has been expressed about how the church handles commitments to outside group events when they are in conflict with a member's funeral. This came up when a recent member funeral was at the same time as an outside group had an event planned for the parish hall. This is the first time we have had a conflict with an outside group commitment in Fr. Eric's 14-year tenure here. While this is a very rare occurrence, it is important that these situations be handled well and that all understand the principles involved.

Following a lengthy discussion, it was agreed (with two dissenting votes) to continue the current unwritten policy that once a part of the facility has been committed to a group, it will not be canceled. It was recognized that it creates an unworkable situation for groups using the facility if they are told that they could be canceled at the last minute even after they have planned and prepared their event, and that this would, in fact, be quite inhospitable. Every effort will be made to accommodate both the outside group and the member's funeral needs, but we will not cancel the group's event.

Valentine's Day Morning Prayer

On Thursday, February 14, Valentine's Day, come celebrate the one-year anniversary of gathering for Morning Prayer at 8:30 a.m. in the Chapel. Refreshments will be served!

From the Deacon

Dear St. John's,

I hope your Christmas celebration was wonderful and I wish you many blessings in this new year, whatever shape or form they may come.

I want to thank everyone for their donation to the parson's purse. It was very much appreciated!

This coming year I want to let everyone know that I will be attending the 7:45 service and teaching Sunday School for the children with Julie Miller and Theresa Chernault. I will not be at the 10 a.m. service on a regular basis. I plan to pursue my call to serve as a volunteer chaplain at the hospital.

I will continue to offer the Tuesday evening Bible Study and also volunteer for the Family Promise outreach.

You probably know that I have responsibilities with my family that also keep me very busy.

You are always in my prayers,
Love, Deacon Elizabeth
