

Tenacious, competitive lawyer sets his sights on archdiocese

Continued from Page One

hubbub. McHenry was the boy's lawyer. He had been assigned to the case by the state's attorney general, Robert F. Utter, who had been appointed to the job by the state's governor, Ernie Fletcher, in 1997. Utter had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years.

An intense competitor

McHenry was a lawyer who had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years.

In his father's shadow

McHenry was a lawyer who had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years.

McHenry was a lawyer who had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years, and he had been a member of the state's attorney general's office for 15 years.

Profile page 2

Clipped By:

bill9917
Sat, Jan 4, 2020