THE UNIVERSITY OF FINDLAY

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to verify that Santiago Vela, is a student at The University of Findlay and is eligible for employment on campus.

Limitations on Employment. On-campus employment is available only of those students who are maintaining their status and are enrolled in a full course of study. Students may work on campus during vacations if they have enrolled for the next semester. Employment must not exceed 20 hours per week while school is in session. If the student is employed elsewhere on our campus or is employed off campus with proper authorization, that work must also be counted towards the 20 hour limit. Full – time employment is permissible between school terms and during holidays and vacations, including summer vacations.

Tax Concerns. In general, F-1 students who have been in the United States less than five years are exempt from Social Security (F.I.C.A.) withholding. The earnings of the students working on campus are exempt from F.I.C.A., regardless of the amount of time spent in the United States. However, the earnings of F-1 students are subject to applicable federal, state, and local taxes, and these amounts may be withheld from paychecks. Students must file an income tax return on or before April 15, of each year, which will determine if the withheld taxes can be reclaimed.
