News from St. Paul's Soup Kitchen

A Special Thank You...

The family of Rose Bronk would like to extend their deepest thanks to all who shared condolences and provided support during this difficult time of grieving the loss of our Soup Kitchen founder – Rose Bronk. An extra special thank you to all who have sent donations to our organization in memory of and in honor of Rose. Rose would humbly accept and be eternally grateful for the donations in her honor. The ongoing support from all of you has been phenomenal and appreciated to the highest extent. Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts! Here is the link for Rose's obituary, photos and the webcast of the funeral service is still available for viewing for those who missed it.

Other Reminders: Clients who have been in the hotel all winter will remain there until the end of May. Any leftovers from the meals should continue to be brought by the serving organization to the shelter – the Lowell Transitional Living Center at 193 Middlesex Street.

We're Serving Five Nights a Week!

Our wonderful supporting organizations make it possible for us to provide free, hot meals to our clients five nights a week. We are packing up the donated food and serving our clients nutritious and delicious take-out meals. Many thanks to everyone involved in keeping this mission alive!

How You Can Help We are often asked what can be done to help us continue our feeding program in Lowell. Here are a few ways to ensure that we are able to provide free meals to our guests: Donate to our operating fund. Though kept to a minimum, our operating costs include our one salaried employee, paper products to serve our guests, rent for our space and insurance, all necessary expenses to keep us open.

Monetary contributions can be made through our website, St. Paul's Soup Kitchen or by mailing a check to: St. Paul's Soup Kitchen, P.O. Box 2257 Lowell, MA 01851 Bring your team in for a one time service.

You will provide and serve the meal, as well as the funding to cover the expenses for that evening's meal. This is a great team building experience! Volunteer inquiries can be made by calling 978-302-9244 or emailing us at stpaulssoupkitchen@gmail.com.

Smile at us on Amazon.com A really easy way for you to help St. Paul's Soup Kitchen is to designate us as your charity when you shop through smile.Amazon.com. We are listed as St Paul's Soup Kitchen Inc in the charity list. This is a great way to support us every time you shop on Amazon.com.
