

Memorial Day Happenings In San Diego

Memorial Day weekend is right around the corner and San Diego restaurants know how to get the party started! From parades to a pig roast, we found the best spots to hit up over the long weekend. Hit the pause button on reality over the three-day weekend ahead and check out these must-see spots!

Mavericks Beach Club

PB's newest beach bar and club will be the place to be this Memorial Day, as they've got quite the lineup of fun planned for the upcoming three-day weekend. On Sunday, May 27th, Mavericks will be hosting their first official Summer Block Party with barbecue, games, tasty drinks and so much more. Swing by between 12:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. to kick off summer the right way with Mavericks!

barleymash

Enjoy one extra day of brunching on Memorial Day weekend at this Gaslamp District favorite on Monday, May 28th. Brunch begins at 10:30 a.m. where weekend warriors can indulge in a variety of barley hashes, a mouthwatering breakfast burger or the Sin-A-Bun, a colossal housemade cinnamon roll topped with brown-butter cream cheese and chocolate hazelnut sauce. Barleymash's Skyy Vodka Bloody Bar, where you can build your own Bloody Mary, will help ease the party after-effects of the weekend.

Park 101

If you're looking for Memorial Weekend non-stop fun, look no further than Park 101! On Friday, May 25th the family-friendly spot will be hosting an Aloha Friday Summer Kick Off Luau with island food and drink specials, a pig roast, and a Polynesian dance and fire knife show all starting at 2:00 p.m. Stop in for brunch on Sunday where $29.95 gets you a plate and boozy bottomless deal where you can drink mimosas to your hearts content. Cap the weekend off with Park 101's weekly seafood boil starting at 2:00 p.m.

Miss B's Coconut Club

Escape to the Coconut Club this Memorial Day Weekend and enjoy Caribbean-inspired bites and tropical cocktails, including a blended Pina Colada served straight from a cored pineapple. Soak up the sun all weekend long on Miss B's outdoor patio, steps from the beach. On Friday, sip on $5 Rosé all day, and stop by for $1 freshly shucked oysters from 5:00 p.m. to sell out. Brunch will be served until 2:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, with a $15 champagne and tropical juice flight special.

The Haven Pizzeria

This quaint neighborhood spot will be opening their garage-style windows and serving up food and drinks during the Annual Kensington Memorial Day Parade, on Monday, May 28th. Refuel with one of San Diego's best Neapolitan pizzas or quench your thirst with one of the beers available on tap.
