

Date: Sept. 6 | Title: Postmodern Jesus Jesus | Brent Hoffman

“See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ.”

(Colossians 2:8, NIV)

Premodern:

Trust authority, including the Bible.

Modern:

Question authority. Rely on science, logic and proof.

Postmodern:

Question reality. Spiritual without committing to any religion or truth. Opinions more important than facts. Relativism - knowledge, truth and morality are not absolute.

Three Different Groups in Acts 17:

Berea (Acts 17:10-15)

Thessalonica (Acts 17:1-9)

Athens (Acts 17:16-34)

Reflection Questions:

How has living in a Postmodern world impacted you?

Who is the real Jesus?

In light of who Jesus is, what changes will you begin making this week?
