New Protection Against Elder Financial Abuse: The Elder Abuse Prevention and Protection Act

In October 2017, Congress passed an important new law, the Elder Abuse Prevention and Protection Act (EAPPA). The EAPPA is one of very few laws which allocates federal funds to address financial elder abuse. The new law was a direct reaction to increasing incidents of financial elder abuse. Every year, thieves, swindlers and even the elders' own children bilk millions of older Americans out of billions of dollars.
