#38 The Devil's Chapel is Far More Impressive than God's Church

Oh, he is far better equipped with sacraments, prophets, apostles, and evangelists than God, and his chapels are much larger than God's church; and he has far more people in his holiness than God. One is also more inclined to believe his promises, his sacraments, and his prophets than Christ. He is the great god of the world. Christ calls him "ruler of the world" [John 12:31; 14:30; 16:11] and Paul "the god of this world" [II Cor. 4:4]. With this aping tomfoolery he estranges men from faith in Christ and causes the word and the sacraments of Christ to be despised and almost unrecognizable because it is easier to perceive such things than to blot out sin, help in time of need, receive salvation through the devil's sacraments rather than through Christ's. For it is Christ's will to make people holy and pious in body and soul through the Holy Spirit and not let them remain in unbelief and sin. This is too hard for those who do not wish to be pious or to desist from sin. They can readily dispense with this work of the Holy Spirit after they learn how they can be saved more easily without him—for example, by holy water, Agnus Dei, bulls and breves, masses and cows—thus making it unnecessary to seek or heed anything else. (Luther's Works, v.41, p.169)

Collect for Cantate

O God, who makes the minds of the faithful to be of one will, grant to Your people that they may love what You have commanded and desire what You do promise, that among the manifold changes of this world our hearts may be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
AMEN.

Introit

Oh, sing to the Lord a new song! Alle- / luia!*

His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations. Alle- / luia

His right hand and His / holy arm*
have gained Him the / victory.
He has remembered His / mercy*
and His faithfulness to the house of / Israel.
All the ends / of the earth*
have seen the salvation / of our God.
Shout joyfully to the Lord, / all the earth;*
break forth in song, rejoice, and sing / praises.
Glory be to the Father and / to the Son*
and to the Holy / Spirit
as it was in the be / ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. / Amen.
Oh, sing to the Lord a new song! Alle- / luia!*

His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – that our Savior Jesus Christ, both in his suffering and death, and in his resurrection and ascension is providing for our good, and still sends the Counselor who will guide us into truth.

The Church and her servants.--that all God's people would live righteous lives--being quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.

--that our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors Michael Henson and Gary Harroun, would save their hearers by planting the word.

--Bless our Director Keely Gelso, teachers, staff, and the little lambs enrolled in our Center.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— We give thanks to you for your good gift of government, for our president, Donald Trump, our governor, J.B. Pritzker, our mayor, Steve Frattini, the congress, and all who make, administer and judge our laws.

--Give to your people everywhere the spirit of love to share their blessings with the hungry. Make us merciful, even as you are merciful, O Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

--For our military personnel— especially Timothy R. Eichenseer, Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, and those who attend to us in times of emergency, and all public servants give commitment to duty, and, in all times of danger, keep them safe.

--"Prayer for the Afflicted and Those Suffering Hardship" Gerhard
