#11 We Surely Deserve Punishment for Our Sins

Alas, I ask myself if this is not happening in punishment of some of my chief patrons and of me. Of my patrons, because, though they believe that Christ is risen, they still wander about in the Garden [looking] for him along with Magdalene, and he has not yet ascended to the Father for them [John 20:17]. Of me, because, as a concession to good friends, I was so subdued at Worms lest I appear stubborn, and so did not make a more explicit and a bolder confession before the tyrants, although since that time these unbelieving heathen have accused me of replying arrogantly. They judge as heathen (that is what they are), who have never sensed a bit of the spirit of faith. I have often regretted my humility and deference. (Luther's Works, v.43, p.65)

Propers for the Baptism of Our Lord

Introit

Behold the Lord, the Ru- / ler, has come,
and the kingdom and the power and the glory are / in His hand.
I have found My servant / David; *
with My holy oil I have a- / nointed him.*

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for- / ever; *
With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all gener- / ations.
He shall / cry to Me, *
“You are My Father, my God, and the rock of my sal- / vation.”
I will make Him My / firstborn, *
the highest of the kings / of the earth.
My mercy I will keep for Him for- / ever, *
and My covenant shall stand / firm with Him.
Glory be to the Father and / to the Son *
and to the Holy / Spirit
as it was in the be / ginning, *
is now, and will be forever. / Amen.
Behold the Lord, the Ru- / ler, has come, *
and the kingdom and the power and the glory are / in His hand.
I have found My servant / David; *
with My holy oil I have a- / nointed him.

(Antiphon, liturgical text, Ps 89:20; Psalm 89:1, 26-28)

Collect

O God, our heavenly Father, whose voice was heard at the baptism of Your only-begotten Son, declaring Him to be the one with whom You are well-pleased, pour down Your Holy Spirit upon Your faithful people that we may rejoice in this same sonship that we have received from You through our baptism into Christ; who lives and reigns with You and the same Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Baptism of Jesus

Followed by The Nicene Creed, p. 141

Prayer for the Church

Thanksgiving. – We give thanks to you that at Your Son’s baptism You revealed to us Your acceptance of us on account of Jesus’ righteousness and promised all who are baptized your glorious presence.

The Church and its servants.—that God’s people, who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ and thus surely united with him in his resurrection, would live lives that would boast in the Lord.
--give all pastors in Christ, including our bishop, James Heiser, and our pastors, Michael D. Henson and Gary K. Harroun, the God-given wisdom to look away from ourselves and trust in the Lord’s presence in God’s Holy Word, Holy Baptism, Holy Communion and Holy Absolution.

--Send your Holy Spirit upon our Director, Keely Gelso, and the staff so that the children attending our Learning Center would believe in Jesus, our Righteousness. Bless the work of the Board of Education.

The nations of the world and their rulers.— Bless our nation, its president, and all who serve in government, that we who rejoice in Your truth may be permitted, without restriction, to declare Your glory and serve You. Protect body and possessions, protect our police officers, especially Alex Byrne and Daniel Byrne, from harm and danger. Provide healing for those who have become injured in the line of duty. And finally give courage and loyalty to those who protect our land, that they may curb violence and maintain law and order. Guide and protect our military personnel, especially Danny Cobin, Jason Melvin, and Blake Darnstaedt, from all harm and danger.

--For those institutions that serve this community, the schools and colleges, hospitals, nursing homes and pregnancy centers, adoption agencies, homeless shelters, and sanctuaries for the unwanted, that they may never snuff out life and hope, but always serve as pools of refreshment and healing for those burdened by the trials of this life.

-- You are the consolation of the sorrowful and the strength of the weak, look upon the tribulation and distress of those affected by the coronavirus. Comfort those who have lost loved ones, provide care for those infected and calm the worries of the timid, so that in their necessities they may observe and receive your manifold help and comfort. For those who are discouraged because of a lack of employment, in your mercy, raise up opportunity for businesses and work, that in peace and thanksgiving all people may earn and eat the bread of contentment.

The Lord's Supper

Trinity Lutheran Church observes the Scriptural practice (Eph 4:3, 2 John 1:10-11) of communing only with those for whom their public profession of faith (congregational membership) is in agreement with God's Word and the correct exposition of Holy Scripture as found in the Book of Concord (1580). All who desire to receive Christ's Body and Blood for the forgiveness of sins are asked to speak with Pastor Henson before coming forward to commune.

Trinity Lutheran Church is served by pastors who are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Diocese of North America (Eldona.org).
 --Those who are members of Eldona-affiliated congregations are welcome to commune after announcing to Pastor Henson.
 --Those who are not members of Eldona-affiliated congregations will need to set up an appointment with Pastor Henson to discuss their public church membership.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Trinity Lutheran Church in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until He comes.

Those who are not yet invited to receive the Sacrament are encouraged to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when our divisions will have ceased.
