

Hi _ this is _ w/MK Cosmetics... do you have a minute?

I'm really excited because I've been challenged to share the MK marketing plan with 10 of the Sharpest women I know in the next 24 hrs!! I'm in a leadership program and I have to be accountable to my mentor by 9 pm tomorrow and I immediately thought of you because I really value your opinion.

I know MK is something you may or may not have thought about in your wildest dreams. I will give you $__ in free products for any of our fabulous products just for helping me today.

Is there any reason we can't take a few minutes now over the phone or would later over coffee be better - today or tomorrow?? Great... early or late afternoon??

Thanks so much....I really appreciate your time!
