

Final Call

by dallas jones

Genre

Action-Suspense-Drama

Logline

Washington D.C.'s premier facility for retired veterans is taken over by terrorists. Aging warriors rally for a final call to duty to retake the facility.

Tagline

You're never too old to stop a bullet – enlist today!

Concept

At the Armed Forces Retirement Home for veterans in Washington, D.C. (AFRH - 272 acres – a city within a city, housing over 500 veterans, ages 65-100) is taken over by terrorists. Striking on a day when the daughter of the President and other Important families are visiting, the terrorists have leverage to stay an assault by the FBI. Many of the veterans feel they have nothing to live for. The colorful ensemble of veterans strike back to take back the facility. (fantastic vehicle for our favorite older action heroes)

Synopsis

Clint Eastman, retired Marine Corps Colonel

Outline

Characters

Clint Eastman	- male, 86
Arnold Johnson	- male, 69
Bruce Wilson	- male, 61
Tommy Lee	- male, 70
Chuck Walker	- male, 76
Donald Summers	- male, 81

