LOW INCOME RESIDENTS OF MONTGOMERY
COUNTY BY SPONSORING THE EXCITING

ACLAMO CULINARY CELEBRATION

MAY 1, 2016 – 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM

ACLAMO Family Centers and the Culinary Arts Institute of Montgomery County Community College are gathering some of the best chefs of the region to prepare their specialty dishes for guests attending this event.

Each guest will enjoy a wide variety of sumptuous food, with each chef creating a dish inspired by the Latino tradition. In addition, there will be an auction and music with Latino rhythm.

ACLAMO is planning this event for three hundred of its most influential supporters, entrepreneurs, and business and community leaders of Montgomery County. We invite you to showcase your organization as a sponsor at the event and in ACLAMO Facebook, e-newsletter, and Twitter publications.

ACLAMO'S Gold Level of Sponsorship is for those who sponsor with a donation of $10,000. To those sponsors, we offer the following benefits:

- Participation at the event by a spokesperson for the group and the display of large logo of group at the event
- Opportunity to distribute promotional material at the event
- Full page advertisement in the printed program guide for the event
- Major focus on the organization in one special issue of ACLAMO e-newsletter. (sample attached)
- Organization's logo featured on ACLAMO's website main home page for 12 months
- Organization's logo and name as a gold sponsor on ACLAMO's monthly e-newsletter for 12 months and also regular mention in Facebook and Twitter
- Six complementary tickets to the event ($600 value)

ACLAMO FAMILY CENTERS

ACLAMO Family Centers provides educational programs, social services and health access to Latino and other low income residents by empowering them to succeed and become productive members of society.

ACLAMO was founded in 1976 by community volunteers in Norristown and Pottstown, was incorporated in 1977 and received tax-exempt status as a 501 c 3 in 1978. For 39 years the agency has been a reliable purchase-of-service provider of employment, housing, social and education services under contract to local, county and state government. In 1983 it was the first Latino agency to become a full member of United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania, and United Way of Pottstown. Over the years ACLAMO has received and successfully implemented grants from many private donors, including foundations, corporate, sectarian and civic organization donors.

Today, ACLAMO Family Centers is still the only full-service agency for Spanish speakers in Montgomery County. Its leadership has invested years in developing a model integrating access to health and educational services for English language learner students from early childhood to adulthood, with a special focus on families with young and school age children.
