The protection of your personal data is a particular concern to us. We therefore process your data exclusively on the basis of the legal data protection regulations (DSGVO, BDSG-neu). In this data protection information we inform you about the most important aspects of data processing within the framework of our contractual relationship.

Data processing

We would like to point out that your personal data will be stored and used by us for the purpose of the execution of the contractual relationship.

The data provided by you (e. g. surname, first name, address, telephone number, bank details) is necessary for the execution of the contractual relationship or for the execution of pre-contractual measures. Without this data, we cannot conclude the contract with you, cannot execute the contract and cannot fulfill our contractual obligations (e. g. payments, invoicing).

Should we wish to process your personal data for a purpose not mentioned above, we will inform you of this beforehand within the framework of the statutory provisions.

The data collected will continue to be stored electronically in the Mercer Int. data processing system. Access to the data is therefore also possible for authorized employees of Mercer Int. companies within the group.

In addition, we make use of external service providers to whom your personal data is made available to fulfill some of our contractual obligations. In addition, we may transfer your personal data to other recipients, such as authorities for the fulfillment of statutory notification obligations (e. g. tax authorities).

After termination of the contractual relationship, the data deposited with us will continue to be stored in accordance with the legally prescribed retention periods. Storage obligations arise from the German Commercial Code, the Tax Code and the Money Laundering Act, among others. The storage periods are thereafter up to ten years after termination of the contract.
