Her unique ability stems from the fact that while she is in front of a group of people she is able to create an experience almost as if she is speaking to the individual member of the audience as well as presenting her thoughts in a logical and organized manner. – Myles Holland

Samantha Bould

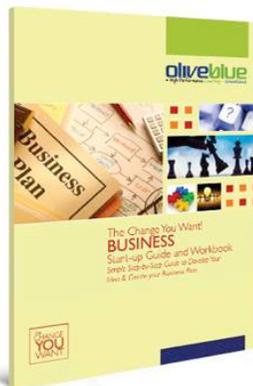

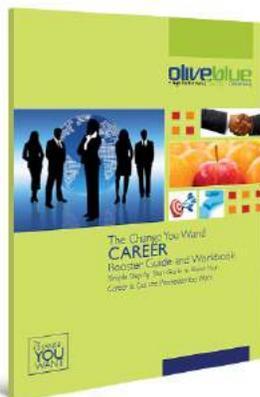

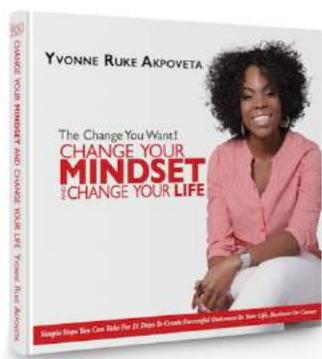

“ What I liked about the presentation was the fluidity and spontaneity of the presenter. Too often presenters exhibit a somewhat stiff delivery style, but this was not the case with Yvonne.

Javier Valdivieso

“ Dynamic speaker! Slide notes were systematically organized and “drilled down” on the topics in sufficient detail.
