Celebrating our 14th year of arts, education, community and culture.
Now more than ever the arts need you

Now more than ever we need the power of the arts to help our youth with their educational and mental health needs.

For 14 years TWW Inc has been transforming communities through effective art programs.

As this year comes to a close, I feel unwavering pride to continue to give programs that focus on their overall developmental needs. TWW Inc inspires, uplifts, pride, leadership and most of all build confidence in our youth.

This year, we have:

1. Completed a full year of our new Creative Arts Therapy program for k - 5 graders.
2. A new dance program (Family night and Early Adults).
3. Hired a new dance instructor and creative art therapist.
4. Worked with 250 students, and 45 adults.
5. Received overall foundation grants worth $24,000, donations from individuals worth $4,700, and other funding through contracted programs.
6. Website has been given a new look to better share and inform.

We at TWW Inc. will continue to bring these opportunities, the feeling of immense joy, pride, and with the feeling of success that fills students' lives through the arts for years to come.
