Science in Design Summit

October 15, 2021 • HPMKT

Join us LIVE at the Universal Furniture Showroom at High Point Market for an immersive event where we will deliver in person, and on demand, educational seminars that will educate industry members on the new science and how it impacts residential design. Hear from scholars and scientists from Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, University of Texas School of Medicine, Reddymade Architecture, Don Ruggles, author of "Beauty Neuroscience and Architecture", University of Calgary Hotchkiss Brain Institute, and more...

We'll Explore Topics on:

- Human Centric Design
- Neuroaesthetics: The Convergence of Science and Design
- Biophilia: The Human NEED for Nature
- The Colors of Health
