

TEMPLE BETH EMETH of SCOTTSDALE

October 2021

OCTOBER PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope everyone had a meaningful High Holiday experience. Karen and I were disappointed we were not present for services, as we have heard that Rabbi Sussman and Cantor Kokin performed admirably. Thank you to our Rabbi and the Cantor from the entire congregation!

Rabbi Sussman has also continued to communicate and participate with the MeetUp group, and we had a number of their members come to our Shul for the Holidays. Once again, thank you Rabbi for working hard to contact new potential members and for organizing the after services schmooze at Goldman's Deli. Also a big thank you to Madelyn Shulman for suggesting we contact the MeetUp group.

I also hope everyone has had a chance to have a meal in a Sukkah and enjoy being outside. Coming up soon is Simchat Torah. Perhaps Rabbi Zari will have everyone dancing with the Torah? Stay tuned!

I also want to thank the board members who worked hard to make our services a success. A special thank you to Harvey, Harold, and Joan for everything you have done. I also thank all of our members who made the effort (sometimes it is a very great effort) to attend services. Without you there is no congregation!

Have a healthy and sweet year. Clyde President

HUMOR

(Jewish jokes in honor of this season's Holidays - Enjoy)

A KGB agent goes to a library and sees an old Jewish man reading a book.

"What are you reading, old man?" he asks.

"I'm learning Hebrew, comrade," replies the old Jew.

The KGB agent asks, "What are you learning Hebrew for? You know it takes years to get a permission to travel to Israel? You will die before you get one."

"I'm learning Hebrew for when I go to heaven so I can speak with Moses and Abraham," replies the old man.

"How do you know you're going to heaven? What if you go to hell?" asks the KGB agent.

"I already speak Russian."

A Jewish son tells his father he is moving out.

The son returns a year later and tells his father that he has converted to Christianity.

The father is upset and calls his friend who is also Jewish. "You won't believe this, my son David moved out for a year and came back and told me he converted to Christianity." His friend says, "you won't believe this...my son Benjamin moved away for a year and when he came back HE converted to Christianity too"! Both upset, they call their rabbi and explain what happened. The rabbi says, "you won't believe this, my son Joshua moved away and when HE came back he told me he converted to Christianity too"! The rabbi suggests they call God and tell him. The rabbi tells God that all three men had sons who moved away and converted to Christianity and don't know what to do.

God says to them, "you won't believe this..."

A waiter checks on a table of Jewish mothers and asks:

Is anything ok?

What do you call a spicy Jewish bread?

Challapeno.
