Volume 20 No 1

February 2019

Congratulations to the 2019 Board of Directors

The APC BoD has familiar faces and welcomes new volunteers to join us. The membership approved the slate and the election results after the February BoD meeting are: President – Elizabeth Rosborg, VP & Membership – Sue Ricciardi, Treasurer – Kathleen McCoun, Directors at Large – Richard Ensor, Chris Kerchner and Teresa Miller.

A huge thank you to past president Richard Ensor for his leadership over the last two years. Luckily for us, he has agreed to stay on as an active Director at Large.

As I jump back into the role as president, I am thrilled to have an experienced team by my side. The Council has some challenges ahead and I am confident with our small, but very effective leadership team, we will represent you well.

Elizabeth

Plan 2040 Citizen Advisory Committee is being reconfigured under the Pittman administration, so look for an announcement about the new committee soon.

Several modifications were approved recently. They include proposed developments at 35 Old Frederick Road and 61 East Joyce Lane. Please check out the APC website under “Happening Now” for more details.

Also Wroxeter Estates has received final plan approval. All the information can be found on the APC website under “Happening Now” and the Wroxeter Estates tab.

Recently APC responded to the proposed widening of Route 2.

APC also responded to the State Highway Administration (SHA) regarding the MD 2 / Joyce Lane Intersection Concept Development Study by AMT Feb 2018.

Several members of APC expressed concern about the blind curve and traffic congestion as they exit RT 50 at #27 to RT 2 North, which resulted in this letter being sent to SHA.

APC has joined forces with other AA County peninsula residents to form the AA County Peninsula Coalition. The mission is to educate the county administration and others about the challenges residents face when living on a peninsula. A full DRAFT of the Peninsula Principles is being circulated. Please let APC know if your community would like to sign on.
