A fantastic combination of casual and formal living awaits the striking Enright. A ranch style home that is all of the amenities of a larger two-story home, the Enright truly enhances modern day living. Your large foyer opens onto both formal and casual rooms. Formal entertaining will find you escorting your guests to living room or to the separate dining room. If the occasion is more casual, the large family room with its fireplace and volume ceiling is just beyond the foyer. A large kitchen with its island cook top and own breakfast area is equally accessible to the family room or the dining room. Evenings or weekend mornings can be spent lounging in your large master bedroom/bath suite where a volume ceiling and large master bath invite quiet relaxing moments.

The Enright also has two additional bedrooms for family or guests or some have converted one of the bedrooms to a private den with a wet bar. A second full bath is also located conveniently adjacent to the additional bedrooms. A full two car garage, combination mud and laundry room and a large basement complete this very attractive, extremely livable, ranch home.
