Join us for:
Leadership on the Dias
 A discussion on the skills and leadership traits every Planning Commissioner can deliver!
 Thursday, July 18, 2019 – 11am to 1:15 pm (program at 11:30 am)
 Location: Quail Hill Community Center, Irvine
 39 Shady Canyon Road
 Irvine, CA 92603

Our program is an informal conversation geared to Planning Commissioners intent on understanding planning policy, growing their land use tool-box, and improving leadership skills.

Come hear “Tales of the Commission” and learn what it takes to grow, how to navigate the complexities of the role, earn community trust, and avoid common pitfalls through the lens of those on the other side of the Planning Commission dais. Bring your questions and scenarios to hear insights and advice from our distinguished panel of experts.

Panelist:

- Sheri Vander Dussen, AICP, Former Acting Deputy City Manager and Planning Director, City of Anaheim
- Ray Pascua, Former Development Services Director, City Placentia
- Leslie Aranda Roseberry, Former Community Development Director, City of Laguna Niguel
- Chuck Wilson, Former Community Development Director, City of Mission Viejo

Moderator: Barry Curtis, AICP, Director Economic and Development Services, City of Costa Mesa

Our program concludes with additional information from the OCPOLI-C Leadership Committee about the Orange County Planning Officials Leadership Initiative - Collaborative.

- Byron de Arakal, Chair, Costa Mesa Planning Commission
- Melanie Schlotterbeck, Chair, Brea Planning Commission
- Eric Nelson, Commissioner, Dana Point Planning Commission
