

...

Massachusetts Science & Engineering Fair

Policy on the use of Portable Electronic Devices during the Massachusetts Science & Engineering Fair

The use of portable electronic devices to gather information related to a student's project during the MSEF judging period that will help answer questions of the judges or will help gain an advantage over the competition is strictly prohibited. Students proven to be in violation of this policy will be removed from award eligibility.