YAHWEH— HIS ETERNAL MEMORIAL UNVEILED

Presented here you will find candidly plain Scriptures proving the authenticity and the need for using the real name of our Heavenly Father Yahweh and the saving Name of the Messiah, Yeshua. Interspersed you will find quotes from some of the most prominent, authoritative reference works available today, proving that both religious and secular scholar forthrightly supports the doctrinal stand taken by the Assemblies of Yahweh. A careful reading of what follows should convince even the most adamant skeptic.

Calling Yahweh by His Name

"Your name, Oh Yahweh, endures forever, your memorial name. Oh Yahweh, throughout all generations." Psalm 135:17

"I will declare your name to my brethren: in the midst of the assembly I will praise you." Psalm 22:30

"The Who has ascended up into heaven, and descend ed? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in His garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His Name, and what is His Son's Name, if you know?"

Proverbs 30:4

"You shall not make wrong use of the Name of Yahweh your Elohim; for Yahweh will not leave unavenged the man who misuses His Name." (Exodus 20:7)

"And Elohim said moreover to Moses, In this manner shall you say to the children of Israel, Yahweh, the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob, has sent me to you, this is my Name Yahweh, and this is my memorial to all generations." Exodus 3:15

"The Masoretes, Jewish biblical scholars of the Middle Ages, replaced vowel signs that had appeared above or beneath the consonants of YHWH with the vowel signs of Adonai or of Elohim. Thus, the artificial name Jehovah (YehHoWah) came into being. Although Christian scholars after the renaissance and the reformation periods used the term Jehovah for YHWH, in the 19th and 20th centuries biblical scholars again began to use the form Yahweh. Early [Messianic] writers, such as Clement of Alex andria in the 2nd century, had used the form Yahweh, thus the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton was never really lost. Greek translations also preserved that YHWH should be pronounced Yahweh."—Yahweh, Encyclopedia Britannica, 15th Edition

On a mountain, eighteen miles west of La Paz, Bolivia, is a mysterious, ancient, paleo-Hebrew rock carved into bold rock lines. One line and two read: I am Yahweh your Elohim who brought you out of the land. There shall not be unto them other mighty ones before me. Lines five and six read: by your father and mother, that your days may be long on the soil which Yahweh your Elohim gives you. Having been examined by scholars ranging from Smithsonian archaeologists to a majority of Bible scholars, its authenticity in antiquity has never been questioned.

"For you are our Father, though Abraham knows us not, and Israel does not acknowledge us. Yo Yahweh, are we your Father, our Redeemer from everlasting is your Name." Isaiah 63:16

The Yeminite Jews of Arabia who retain an ancient, correct, and pure pronunciation of Hebrew still pronounce the [4] as "w"—as does Arabic, the close sister language of Hebrew."—Edward Honig, How the Hebrew Language Grew (New York: KTAV Publishing Co., 1979), Chapter 4, pp. 8-9

"Very, very early in the history of Hebrew writing certain letters were used as vowels to help out in reading. There were four letters so used. They were [he], [aleph], [jeth], and [waw]."—Edward Hornig, How the Hebrew Language Grew, p. 333. (KTAV Publishing House, New York, 1979)

"Jehovah—A Grammatical Impossibility"

"Ripley's Believe It or Not! records that in 1585 Gide Reymes, a printer in Paris, France created a magazine named 'La Litt'ure' and pronounced this they were vowels, indistinguishable from T and U."—Jehovah, (Yahweh), in the Bible, the Elohim of Israel. "Jehovah" is a modern mispronunciation of the Hebrew Name (YHWH) as they read it, with the vowels of adonai, 'Lord,' which the Jews substituted for the proper name in reading the Scriptures. When Christian scholars began to study the Old Testament in Hebrew, if they were ignorant of this rule (of Jewish substitutional superstition) they would invariably pronounce the name as Jehovah. It is an unattainable inquiry who made this blunder; probably many fell into it independently."—Jehovah, Encyclopedia Britannica, 11th Edition, Volume 15, p. 311

"The Name of God in the O.T. Seventh Day Adventist Bible Commentary, Vol. 1

"I am Yahweh, that is my Name; and my glory will shalv not be added to him, neither my praise to be raised images." Isaiah 44:28

"Let them praise the Name of Yahweh; for His Name alone is exalted: His glory is above the earth and in the heavens. Sing to Yahweh, sing praises to His Name; cast up a highway for him that rides through the deserts, His Name is Yah, and exact before him."—Psalm 68:4

"Yahweh, the Elohim of Hosts, Yahweh is His numeral Name." Hosea 12:5

"Lord, you are a God. In a most literal sense announcing the Name 'Yahweh' is generally ascribed to a sense of reverence. More precisely, it was caused by a misunderstanding of the third commandment (Ex. 20:17, Deut. 5:11) as meaning Thou shalt not take the name of the Elohim to be in vain, whereas it really means, You shall not swear falsely by the name of Yahweh your Elohim. "—Goz Names of: Encyclopedia Judaica, (Keter Publishing House, Jerusalem, 1969) Vol. 2, p. 39

"And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, says Yahweh, two parts shall be cut off off evil and the third shall be left in it. And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call on my Name, and I will hear them; I will say, it is my people, and they shall say, Yahweh is my Elohim."—Zechariah 13:9-8

"Seek Yahweh, all ye meek of the earth, that have worked with your hands the truth: for in simplicity of heart and in humility of spirit is your salvation." Zechariah 4:10

"And I will bring all the remnant of this people into the wilderness of the mountains of the Arabah toward Gilgal, that I may humble their souls, that I may make them know the way I have chosen for them; that they may set their faces toward the wilderness of the Arabah toward Gilgal."—Exodus 16:7

Before the end of this age, Yahweh has promised to send ELYAHU! This name in Hebrew signifies, My Mighty One is Yahweh. The Assemblies of Yahweh is today preaching that our Mighty One is Yahweh.

Israel has gone far from the pathway Yahweh told them to walk. Will you return as Yahweh inspired Jeremiah to plead for us?

"Set yourself up waymarks, make yourself guideposts, set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, to these your cities. Jeremiah 31:21"

"And they will call upon the Name of Yahweh, and will worship Him with one consent. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring my offering." Zephaniah 3:9-10

Zephaniah relays to us a promise for the Kingdom Age. We are now in preparation for the Kingdom, and we call upon the Name of Yahweh in your worship! Do you qualify for a place among the elect as John wrote in the revelation given to him? If you don’t meet these two qualifications, you will not stand with the 144,000 in that day.

"And the dragon became exceedingly angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the remnant of her seed, that keep the commandments of Yahweh, and hold the testimony of Yahshua. Revelation 12:17"

"Here is the patience of the saints; they that keep the commandments of Yahweh, and the faith of Yahshua." Revelation 14:12
