

Texas Economics of Crime Workshop

February 18-19, 2022

Austin, TX

Organizers:

Jennifer Doleac (Texas A&M University)

Cody Tuttle (University of Texas-Austin)

Call for Papers:

The Texas Economics of Crime Workshop (TxECW) will bring together scholars from Texas and beyond, to discuss cutting-edge research from the vibrant economics of crime field. It will include presentations of working papers related to criminal behavior and the criminal justice system.

Topics of interest include (but are not limited to):

- Crime prevention
- Policing
- Court processes and judge behavior
- Incarceration
- Prisoner reentry
- Labor market dynamics for people with criminal records
- How to reduce racial disparities in the criminal justice system
- Effects of healthcare access on criminal behavior
- Intergenerational effects of criminal justice involvement

To submit a paper for consideration, please email it in PDF format to Jing Zhang (ameruszhang@tamu.edu) with the subject line "TxECW submission". Papers should include an abstract and should not yet be published.

The submission deadline is October 31, 2021. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by December 1, 2021.