stoby's history

In the summer of 1980, David Stobaugh approached Mrs. Florence Smith, the owner of Mrs. Smith's Pie Shop in Conway, with an offer to split the rent. David stated he would sell sandwiches and she could sell pies and assured her pie sales would increase. Just so happens, Mrs. Smith was ready to change directions. Several days later when David acquired her equipment, Mrs. Smith stated she needed a job and asked if David would like to hire her, to which he agreed. Mrs. Smith then went on to be a devoted member of the Stoby's team, until she retired 20 years later. Our Italian Crème Cake, Strawberry Cake, and Peanut Butter Pie originated from Mrs. Smith's recipes.

David opened Stoby's in Conway on July 21, 1980. Four years later on March 8, 1984, in a former yogurt shop named the Whistle Stop; David, with the help of Richard Bailey, opened Stoby's in Russellville. The entire restaurant, including the kitchen, was in the train car, which now serves as our third dining room. Within a year, the restaurant outgrew the limited space of the train car. Thus began the search for a larger location. John Joe and Karen Harris, who owned the train car at the time, realized the need of a larger location. They used the Russellville train station as an inspiration for the design of the Stoby's 'depot'. On August 15, 1986, the local community welcomed a new and larger Stoby's. This quadrupled the limited space of what was once just the train car. Several years later, it was time to take another step forward; in 2018, Stoby's received a complete modernization of the entire kitchen. Over the years, Stoby's has won various awards for breakfast, desserts, salads, and sandwiches.

We are incredibly grateful for the continuous support of our local community.
